1 “SEC. 702. PROCEDURES FOR TARGETING CERTAIN PER- 2 SONS OUTSIDE THE UNITED STATES OTHER
3 THAN UNITED STATES PERSONS.

4 “(a) AUTHORIZATION.—Notwithstanding any other 5 provision of law, pursuant to an order issued in accord-6 ance with subsection (i)(3) or a determination under sub-
7 section (g)(1)(B), the Attorney General and the Director
8 of National Intelligence may authorize jointly, for a period 9 of up to 1 year from the effective date of the authoriza-10 tion, the targeting of persons reasonably believed to be lo-11 cated outside the United States to acquire foreign intel-
12 ligence information.

13 “(b) LIMITATIONS.—An acquisition authorized under 14 subsection (a)—

15 “(1) may not intentionally target any person 16 known at the time of acquisition to be located in the 17 United States;

18 “(2) may not intentionally target a person rea-
19 sonably believed to be located outside the United 20 States in order to target a particular, known person
21 reasonably believed to be in the United States;

22 “(3) may not intentionally target a United 23 States person reasonably believed to be located out-
24 side the United States;

25 “(4) may not intentionally acquire any commu-
26 nication as to which the sender and all intended re-

1 recipients are known at the time of the acquisition to 2 be located in the United States; and

3 “(5) shall be conducted in a manner consistent 4 with the fourth amendment to the Constitution of 5 the United States.

6 “(c) CONDUCT OF ACQUISITION.—An acquisition au-7 thorized under subsection (a) may be conducted only in 8 accordance with—

9 “(1) a certification made by the Attorney Gen-
10 eral and the Director of National Intelligence pursu-11 ant to subsection (g) or a determination under para-12 graph (1)(B) of such subsection; and 13 “(2) the procedures and guidelines required 14 pursuant to subsections (d), (e), and (f).

15 “(d) TARGETING PROCEDURES.—

16 “(1) REQUIREMENT TO ADOPT.—The Attorney
17 General, in consultation with the Director of Na-
18 tional Intelligence, shall adopt targeting procedures
19 that are reasonably designed to ensure that any ac-
20 quisition authorized under subsection (a) is limited 21 to targeting persons reasonably believed to be lo-
22 cated outside the United States and does not result 23 in the intentional acquisition of any communication 24 as to which the sender and all intended recipients

1 are known at the time of the acquisition to be lo-
2 cated in the United States.

3 “(2) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—The procedures re-4 quired by paragraph (1) shall be subject to judicial 5 review pursuant to subsection (i).

6 “(e) MINIMIZATION PROCEDURES.—

7 “(1) REQUIREMENT TO ADOPT.—The Attorney
8 General, in consultation with the Director of Na-
9 tional Intelligence, shall adopt minimization proce-
10 dures for acquisitions authorized under subsection
11 (a) that—

12 “(A) in the case of electronic surveillance,
13 meet the definition of minimization procedures
14 under section 101(h); and

15 “(B) in the case of a physical search, meet 16 the definition of minimization procedures under 17 section 301(4).

18 “(2) JUDICIAL REVIEW.—The minimization
19 procedures required by paragraph (1) shall be sub-20 ject to judicial review pursuant to subsection (i).

21 “(f) GUIDELINES FOR COMPLIANCE WITH LIMITA-
22 TIONS.—

23 “(1) REQUIREMENT TO ADOPT.—The Attorney
24 General, in consultation with the Director of Na-
25 tional Intelligence, shall adopt guidelines to ensure—

1           “(A) compliance with the limitations in 2           subsection (b); and

3           “(B) that an application is filed under sec-
4           tion 104 or 303, if required by this Act.

5           “(2) CRITERIA.—With respect to subsection 6           (b)(2), the guidelines adopted pursuant to paragraph 7           (1) shall contain specific criteria for determining 8           whether a significant purpose of an acquisition is to 9           acquire the communications of a specific United 10          States person reasonably believed to be located in 11          the United States. Such criteria shall include consid-12          eration of whether—

13                  “(A) the department or agency of the Fed-14                  eral Government conducting the acquisition has 15                  made an inquiry to another department or 16                  agency of the Federal Government to gather in-17                  formation on the specific United States person;

18                  “(B) the department or agency of the Fed-19                  eral Government conducting the acquisition has 20                  provided information that identifies the specific 21                  United States person to another department or 22                  agency of the Federal Government;

23                  “(C) the department or agency of the Fed-24                  eral Government conducting the acquisition de-25                  termines that the specific United States person

1           has been the subject of ongoing interest or re-
2           peated investigation by a department or agency
3           of the Federal Government; and

4           “(D) the specific United States person is a 5           natural person.

6           “(3) TRAINING.—The Director of National In-7           telligence shall establish a training program for ap-8           propriate personnel of the intelligence community to 9           ensure that the guidelines adopted pursuant to para-10          graph (1) are properly implemented.

11          “(4) SUBMISSION TO CONGRESS AND FOREIGN 12          INTELLIGENCE SURVEILLANCE COURT.—The Attor-
13          ney General shall submit the guidelines adopted pur-14          suant to paragraph (1) to—

15                 “(A) the congressional intelligence commit-
16                 tees;

17                 “(B) the Committees on the Judiciary of 18                 the House of Representatives and the Senate;
19                 and

20                 “(C) the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
21                 Court.

22          “(g) CERTIFICATION.—

23                 “(1) IN GENERAL.—

24                 “(A) REQUIREMENT.—Subject to subpara-
25                 graph (B), if the Attorney General and the Di-

1           rector of National Intelligence seek to authorize 2           an acquisition under this section, the Attorney
3           General and the Director of National Intel-
4           ligence shall provide, under oath, a written cer-
5           tification, as described in this subsection.

6           “(B) EMERGENCY AUTHORIZATION.—If 7           the Attorney General and the Director of Na-
8           tional Intelligence determine that an emergency
9           situation exists, immediate action by the Gov-
10          ernment is required, and time does not permit 11          the completion of judicial review pursuant to 12          subsection (i) prior to the initiation of an acqui-13          sition, the Attorney General and the Director of 14          National Intelligence may authorize the acquisi-
15          tion and shall submit to the Foreign Intel-16          ligence Surveillance Court a certification under 17          this subsection as soon as possible but in no 18          event more than 7 days after such determina-19          tion is made.

20          “(2) REQUIREMENTS.—A certification made 21          under this subsection shall—

22                  “(A) attest that—

23                          “(i) there are reasonable procedures 24                          in place for determining that the acquisi-25                          tion authorized under subsection (a)—

1           “(I) is targeted at persons rea-
2           sonably believed to be located outside
3           the United States and such proce-
4           dures have been submitted to the For-
5           eign Intelligence Surveillance Court;
6           and

7           “(II) does not result in the inten-
8           tional acquisition of any communica-9           tion as to which the sender and all in-10          tended recipients are known at the 11          time of the acquisition to be located in 12          the United States, and such proce-
13          dures have been submitted to the For-
14          eign Intelligence Surveillance Court;

15          “(ii) guidelines have been adopted in 16          accordance with subsection (f) to ensure 17          compliance with the limitations in sub-
18          section (b) and to ensure that applications 19          are filed under section 104 or section 303, 20          if required by this Act;

21          “(iii) the minimization procedures to 22          be used with respect to such acquisition—

23                  “(I) meet the definition of mini-24                  mization procedures under section

1 101(h) or section 301(4) in accord-2 ance with subsection (e); and

3 “(II) have been submitted to the 4 Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
5 Court;

6 “(iv) the procedures and guidelines re-7 ferred to in clauses (i), (ii), and (iii) are 8 consistent with the requirements of the 9 fourth amendment to the Constitution of 10 the United States;

11 “(v) a significant purpose of the ac-
12 quisition is to obtain foreign intelligence
13 information;

14 “(vi) the acquisition involves obtaining 15 the foreign intelligence information from or 16 with the assistance of an electronic com-17 munication service provider; and 18 “(vii) the acquisition complies with 19 the limitations in subsection (b);

20 “(B) be supported, as appropriate, by the 21 affidavit of any appropriate official in the area 22 of national security who is—

23 “(i) appointed by the President, by 24 and with the consent of the Senate; or

1                   “(ii) the head of an element of the in-2                   telligence community; and

3                   “(C) include—

4                   “(i) an effective date for the author-5                   ization that is between 30 and 60 days 6                   from the submission of the written certifi-7                   cation to the court; or

8                   “(ii) if the acquisition has begun or 9                   will begin in less than 30 days from the 10                  submission of the written certification to 11                  the court—

12                  “(I) the date the acquisition 13                  began or the effective date for the ac-
14                  quisition;

15                  “(II) a description of why imple-16                  mentation was required in less than 17                  30 days from the submission of the 18                  written certification to the court; and 19                  “(III) if the acquisition is au-20                  thorized under paragraph (1)(B), the 21                  basis for the determination that an 22                  emergency situation exists, immediate 23                  action by the government is required, 24                  and time does not permit the comple-

1                   tion of judicial review prior to the ini-
2                   tiation of the acquisition.

3                   “(3) LIMITATION.—A certification made under 4                   this subsection is not required to identify the specific 5                   facilities, places, premises, or property at which the 6                   acquisition authorized under subsection (a) will be 7                   directed or conducted.

8                   “(4) SUBMISSION TO THE COURT.—The Attor-
9                   ney General shall transmit a copy of a certification 10                  made under this subsection, and any supporting affi-11                  davit, under seal to the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-12                  lance Court before the initiation of an acquisition 13                  under this section, except in accordance with para-14                  graph (1)(B). The Attorney General shall maintain 15                  such certification under security measures adopted 16                  by the Chief Justice of the United States and the 17                  Attorney General, in consultation with the Director 18                  of National Intelligence.

19                  “(5) REVIEW.—A certification submitted pursu-
20                  ant to this subsection shall be subject to judicial re-21                  view pursuant to subsection (i).

22                  “(h) DIRECTIVES AND JUDICIAL REVIEW OF DIREC-
23                  TIVES.—

24                  “(1) AUTHORITY.—Pursuant to an order issued 25                  in accordance with subsection (i)(3) or a determina-

1       tion under subsection (g)(1)(B), the Attorney Gen-
2       eral and the Director of National Intelligence may 3       direct, in writing, an electronic communication serv-4       ice provider to—

5               “(A) immediately provide the Government
6               with all information, facilities, or assistance
7               necessary to accomplish the acquisition author-
8               ized in accordance with this section in a manner 9               that will protect the secrecy of the acquisition 10              and produce a minimum of interference with 11              the services that such electronic communication 12              service provider is providing to the target of the 13              acquisition; and

14              “(B) maintain under security procedures
15              approved by the Attorney General and the Di-16              rector of National Intelligence any records con-17              cerning the acquisition or the aid furnished that 18              such electronic communication service provider
19              wishes to maintain.

20              “(2) COMPENSATION.—The Government shall 21              compensate, at the prevailing rate, an electronic 22              communication service provider for providing infor-23              mation, facilities, or assistance pursuant to para-24              graph (1).

- 1           “(3) RELEASE FROM LIABILITY.—Notwith-
2 standing any other provision of law, no cause of ac-3 tion shall lie in any court against any electronic 4 communication service provider for providing any in-5 formation, facilities, or assistance in accordance with 6 a directive issued pursuant to paragraph (1).

7           “(4) CHALLENGING OF DIRECTIVES.—

8           “(A) AUTHORITY TO CHALLENGE.—An 9 electronic communication service provider re-
10 ceiving a directive issued pursuant to paragraph 11 (1) may challenge the directive by filing a peti-
12 tion with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
13 Court, which shall have jurisdiction to review
14 such a petition.

15           “(B) ASSIGNMENT.—The presiding judge
16 of the Court shall assign the petition filed
17 under subparagraph (A) to 1 of the judges serv-
18 ing in the pool established by section 103(e)(1) 19 not later than 24 hours after the filing of the 20 petition.

21           “(C) STANDARDS FOR REVIEW.—A judge
22 considering a petition to modify or set aside a 23 directive may grant such petition only if the 24 judge finds that the directive does not meet the

1 requirements of this section or is otherwise un-2 lawful.

3 “(D) PROCEDURES FOR INITIAL RE-
4 VIEW.—A judge shall conduct an initial review
5 of a petition filed under subparagraph (A) not 6 later than 5 days after being assigned such pe-
7 tition. If the judge determines that the petition 8 does not consist of claims, defenses, or other 9 legal contentions that are warranted by existing 10 law, a nonfrivolous argument for extending,
11 modifying, or reversing existing law, or estab-
12 lishing new law, the judge shall immediately 13 deny the petition and affirm the directive or 14 any part of the directive that is the subject of 15 the petition and order the recipient to comply 16 with the directive or any part of it. Upon mak-
17 ing such a determination or promptly there-18 after, the judge shall provide a written state-19 ment for the record of the reasons for a deter-20 mination under this subparagraph.

21 “(E) PROCEDURES FOR PLENARY RE-
22 VIEW.—If a judge determines that a petition
23 filed under subparagraph (A) requires plenary 24 review, the judge shall affirm, modify, or set 25 aside the directive that is the subject of that pe-

1           tition not later than 30 days after being as-2           signed the petition. If the judge does not set 3           aside the directive, the judge shall immediately
4           affirm or modify the directive and order the re-5           cipient to comply with the directive in its en-
6           tirety or as modified. The judge shall provide a 7           written statement for the records of the reasons 8           for a determination under this subparagraph.

9           “(F) CONTINUED EFFECT.—Any directive 10          not explicitly modified or set aside under this 11          paragraph shall remain in full effect.

12          “(G) CONTEMPT OF COURT.—Failure to 13          obey an order of the Court issued under this 14          paragraph may be punished by the Court as 15          contempt of court.

16          “(5) ENFORCEMENT OF DIRECTIVES.—

17          “(A) ORDER TO COMPEL.—If an electronic 18          communication service provider fails to comply 19          with a directive issued pursuant to paragraph 20          (1), the Attorney General may file a petition for 21          an order to compel the electronic communica-
22          tion service provider to comply with the direc-
23          tive with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
24          Court, which shall have jurisdiction to review
25          such a petition.

1           “(B) ASSIGNMENT.—The presiding judge
2 of the Court shall assign a petition filed under 3 subparagraph (A) to 1 of the judges serving in 4 the pool established by section 103(e)(1) not 5 later than 24 hours after the filing of the peti-
6 tion.

7           “(C) PROCEDURES FOR REVIEW.—A judge
8 considering a petition filed under subparagraph 9 (A) shall issue an order requiring the electronic 10 communication service provider to comply with 11 the directive or any part of it, as issued or as 12 modified not later than 30 days after being as-13 signed the petition if the judge finds that the 14 directive meets the requirements of this section 15 and is otherwise lawful. The judge shall provide 16 a written statement for the record of the rea-17 sons for a determination under this paragraph.

18           “(D) CONTEMPT OF COURT.—Failure to 19 obey an order of the Court issued under this 20 paragraph may be punished by the Court as 21 contempt of court.

22           “(E) PROCESS.—Any process under this 23 paragraph may be served in any judicial district 24 in which the electronic communication service 25 provider may be found.

1           “(6) APPEAL.—

2                   “(A) APPEAL TO THE COURT OF RE-
3 VIEW.—The Government or an electronic com-
4 munication service provider receiving a directive
5 issued pursuant to paragraph (1) may file a pe-
6 tition with the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
7 Court of Review for review of a decision issued 8 pursuant to paragraph (4) or (5). The Court of 9 Review shall have jurisdiction to consider such 10 a petition and shall provide a written statement 11 for the record of the reasons for a decision 12 under this paragraph.

13                   “(B) CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME 14 COURT.—The Government or an electronic com-
15 munication service provider receiving a directive
16 issued pursuant to paragraph (1) may file a pe-
17 tition for a writ of certiorari for review of the 18 decision of the Court of Review issued under 19 subparagraph (A). The record for such review 20 shall be transmitted under seal to the Supreme 21 Court of the United States, which shall have ju-22 risdiction to review such decision.

23           “(i) JUDICIAL REVIEW OF CERTIFICATIONS AND 24 PROCEDURES.—

1           “(A) REVIEW BY THE FOREIGN INTEL-2           LIGENCE SURVEILLANCE COURT.—The Foreign 3           Intelligence Surveillance Court shall have juris-
4           diction to review any certification submitted
5           pursuant to subsection (g) and the targeting 6           and minimization procedures required by sub-
7           sections (d) and (e).

8           “(B) TIME PERIOD FOR REVIEW.—The 9           Court shall review the certification submitted
10          pursuant to subsection (g) and the targeting 11          and minimization procedures required by sub-
12          sections (d) and (e) and approve or deny an 13          order under this subsection not later than 30 14          days after the date on which a certification is 15          submitted.

16          “(2) REVIEW.—The Court shall review the fol-
17          lowing:

18                 “(A) CERTIFICATIONS.—A certification
19                 submitted pursuant to subsection (g) to deter-20                 mine whether the certification contains all the 21                 required elements.

22                 “(B) TARGETING PROCEDURES.—The tar-23                 geting procedures required by subsection (d) to 24                 assess whether the procedures are reasonably 25                 designed to ensure that the acquisition author-

1            ized under subsection (a) is limited to the tar-
2            geting of persons reasonably believed to be lo-
3            cated outside the United States and does not 4            result in the intentional acquisition of any com-5            munication as to which the sender and all in-6            tended recipients are known at the time of the 7            acquisition to be located in the United States.

8            “(C) MINIMIZATION PROCEDURES.—The 9            minimization procedures required by subsection 10           (e) to assess whether such procedures meet the 11           definition of minimization procedures under sec-12           tion 101(h) or section 301(4) in accordance 13           with subsection (e).

14           “(3) ORDERS.—

15           “(A) APPROVAL.—If the Court finds that 16           a certification submitted pursuant to subsection 17           (g) contains all of the required elements and 18           that the procedures required by subsections (d) 19           and (e) are consistent with the requirements of 20           those subsections and with the fourth amend-21           ment to the Constitution of the United States, 22           the Court shall enter an order approving the 23           certification and the use of the procedures for 24           the acquisition.

1           “(B) CORRECTION OF DEFICIENCIES.—If 2           the Court finds that a certification submitted 3           pursuant to subsection (g) does not contain all 4           of the required elements or that the procedures
5           required by subsections (d) and (e) are not con-
6           sistent with the requirements of those sub-7           sections or the fourth amendment to the Con-
8           stitution of the United States—

9                   “(i) in the case of a certification sub-
10                  mitted in accordance with subsection
11                  (g)(1)(A), the Court shall deny the order, 12                  identify any deficiency in the certification
13                  or procedures, and provide the Government 14                  with an opportunity to correct such defi-15                  ciency; and 16                   “(ii) in the case of a certification sub-

17                  mitted in accordance with subsection
18                  (g)(1)(B), the Court shall issue an order
19                  directing the Government to, at the Gov-20                  ernment’s election and to the extent re-
21                  quired by the Court’s order—

22                           “(I) correct any deficiency identi-
23                           fied by the Court not later than 30
24                           days after the date the Court issues 25                           the order; or

1                   “(II) cease the acquisition au-
2                   thorized under subsection (g)(1)(B).

3                   “(C) REQUIREMENT FOR WRITTEN STATE-
4                   MENT.—In support of its orders under this sub-5                   section, the Court shall provide, simultaneously 6                   with the orders, for the record a written state-7                   ment of its reasons.

9                   “(A) APPEAL TO THE COURT OF RE-
10                  VIEW.—The Government may appeal any order
11                  under this section to the Foreign Intelligence 12                  Surveillance Court of Review, which shall have 13                  jurisdiction to review such order. For any deci-14                  sion affirming, reversing, or modifying an order 15                  of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, 16                  the Court of Review shall provide for the record 17                  a written statement of its reasons.

18                  “(B) CONTINUATION OF ACQUISITION
19                  PENDING REHEARING OR APPEAL.—Any acqui-20                  sition affected by an order under paragraph 21                  (3)(B)(ii) may continue—

22                         “(i) during the pendency of any re-23                         hearing of the order by the Court en banc;
24                         and

1           “(ii) if the Government appeals an 2           order under this section, subject to sub-
3           paragraph (C), until the Court of Review
4           enters an order under subparagraph (A).

5           “(C) IMPLEMENTATION OF EMERGENCY 6           AUTHORITY PENDING APPEAL.—Not later than 7           60 days after the filing of an appeal of an order 8           issued under paragraph (3)(B)(ii) directing the 9           correction of a deficiency, the Court of Review 10          shall determine, and enter a corresponding 11          order regarding whether all or any part of the 12          correction order, as issued or modified, shall be 13          implemented during the pendency of the appeal.
14          The Government shall conduct an acquisition 15          affected by such order issued under paragraph 16          (3)(B)(ii) in accordance with an order issued 17          under this subparagraph or shall cease such ac-
18          quisition.

19          “(D) CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME 20          COURT.—The Government may file a petition 21          for a writ of certiorari for review of a decision
22          of the Court of Review issued under subpara-23          graph (A). The record for such review shall be 24          transmitted under seal to the Supreme Court of

1 the United States, which shall have jurisdiction
2 to review such decision.

3 “(5) SCHEDULE.—

4 “(A) REPLACEMENT OF AUTHORIZATIONS
5 IN EFFECT.—If the Attorney General and the 6 Director of National Intelligence seek to replace 7 an authorization issued pursuant to section
8 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
9 Act of 1978, as added by section 2 of the Pro-
10 tect America Act of 2007 (Public Law 110-55),
11 the Attorney General and the Director of Na-
12 tional Intelligence shall, to the extent prac-
13 ticable, submit to the Court a certification
14 under subsection (g) and the procedures re-15 quired by subsections (d), (e), and (f) at least 16 30 days before the expiration of such authoriza-
17 tion.

18 “(B) REAUTHORIZATION OF AUTHORIZA-
19 TIONS IN EFFECT.—If the Attorney General
20 and the Director of National Intelligence seek 21 to replace an authorization issued pursuant to 22 this section, the Attorney General and the Di-
23 rector of National Intelligence shall, to the ex-
24 tent practicable, submit to the Court a certifi-
25 cation under subsection (g) and the procedures

1 required by subsections (d), (e), and (f) at least 2 30 days prior to the expiration of such author-3 ization.

4 “(C) CONSOLIDATED SUBMISSIONS.—The 5 Attorney General and Director of National In-6 telligence shall, to the extent practicable, annu-7 ally submit to the Court a consolidation of—

8 “(i) certifications under subsection (g)
9 for reauthorization of authorizations in ef-
10 fect;

11 “(ii) the procedures required by sub-12 sections (d), (e), and (f); and 13 “(iii) the annual review required by 14 subsection (l)(3) for the preceding year.

15 “(D) TIMING OF REVIEWS.—The Attorney
16 General and the Director of National Intel-
17 ligence shall, to the extent practicable, schedule
18 the completion of the annual review under sub-19 section (l)(3) and a semiannual assessment 20 under subsection (l)(1) so that they may be 21 submitted to the Court at the time of the con-
22 solidated submission under subparagraph (C).

23 “(E) CONSTRUCTION.—The requirements
24 of subparagraph (C) shall not be construed to 25 preclude the Attorney General and the Director

1 of National Intelligence from submitting certifi-
2 cations for additional authorizations at other 3 times during the year as necessary.

4 “(6) COMPLIANCE.—At or before the end of the 5 period of time for which a certification submitted 6 pursuant to subsection (g) and procedures required
7 by subsection (d) and (e) are approved by an order
8 under this section, the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-9 lance Court may assess compliance with the mini-10 mization procedures required by subsection (e) by 11 reviewing the circumstances under which informa-
12 tion concerning United States persons was acquired,
13 retained, or disseminated.

14 “(j) JUDICIAL PROCEEDINGS.—

15 “(1) EXPEDITED PROCEEDINGS.—Judicial pro-
16 ceedings under this section shall be conducted as ex-17 peditiously as possible.

18 “(2) TIME LIMITS.—A time limit for a judicial 19 decision in this section shall apply unless the Court, 20 the Court of Review, or any judge of either the 21 Court or the Court of Review, by order for reasons 22 stated, extends that time for good cause.

23 “(k) MAINTENANCE AND SECURITY OF RECORDS
24 AND PROCEEDINGS.—

1           “(1) STANDARDS.—The Foreign Intelligence
2 Surveillance Court shall maintain a record of a pro-
3 ceeding under this section, including petitions filed, 4 orders granted, and statements of reasons for deci-
5 sion, under security measures adopted by the Chief 6 Justice of the United States, in consultation with 7 the Attorney General and the Director of National 8 Intelligence.

9           “(2) FILING AND REVIEW.—All petitions under 10 this section shall be filed under seal. In any pro-11 ceedings under this section, the court shall, upon re-12 quest of the Government, review ex parte and in 13 camera any Government submission, or portions of 14 a submission, which may include classified informa-
15 tion.

16           “(3) RETENTION OF RECORDS.—The Director
17 of National Intelligence and the Attorney General
18 shall retain a directive made or an order granted
19 under this section for a period of not less than 10 20 years from the date on which such directive or such 21 order is made.

22           “(1) ASSESSMENTS AND REVIEWS.—

23           “(1) SEMIANNUAL ASSESSMENT.—Not less fre-
24 quently than once every 6 months, the Attorney 25 General and Director of National Intelligence shall

1        assess compliance with the procedures and guidelines 2        required by subsections (d), (e), and (f) and shall 3        submit each assessment to—

4                “(A) the congressional intelligence commit-
5        tees;

6                “(B) the Committees on the Judiciary of 7        the House of Representatives and the Senate;
8        and

9                “(C) the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance
10       Court.

11               “(2) AGENCY ASSESSMENT.—The Inspectors
12       General of the Department of Justice and of each 13       element of the intelligence community authorized to 14       acquire foreign intelligence information under sub-15       section (a), with respect to such Department or such 16       element—

17                “(A) are authorized to review compliance 18       with the procedures and guidelines required by 19       subsections (d), (e), and (f);

20                “(B) with respect to acquisitions author-21       ized under subsection (a), shall review the dis-
22       seminated intelligence reports containing a ref-23       erence to a United States person identity and 24       the number of United States person identities
25       subsequently disseminated by the element con-

1           cerned in response to requests for identities 2           that were not referred to by name or title in the 3           original reporting;

4           “(C) with respect to acquisitions author-
5           ized under subsection (a), shall review the tar-6           gets that were later determined to be located in 7           the United States and, to the extent possible, 8           whether their communications were reviewed;
9           and

10          “(D) shall provide each such review to—11           “(i) the Attorney General;

12           “(ii) the Director of National Intel-
13          ligence;

14           “(iii) the congressional intelligence 15          committees;

16           “(iv) the Committees on the Judiciary
17          of the House of Representatives and the 18          Senate; and 19           “(v) the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-

20          lance Court.

21          “(3) ANNUAL REVIEW.—

22           “(A) REQUIREMENT TO CONDUCT.—The 23          head of each element of the intelligence commu-
24          nity conducting an acquisition authorized under 25          subsection (a) shall conduct an annual review to 1 determine whether there is reason to believe 2 that foreign intelligence information has been 3 or will be obtained from the acquisition. The 4 annual review shall provide, with respect to 5 such acquisitions authorized under subsection

6 (a)—

7 “(i) the number and nature of dis-
8 seminated intelligence reports containing a 9 reference to a United States person iden-10 tity;

11 “(ii) the number and nature of United 12 States person identities subsequently dis-13 seminated by that element in response to 14 requests for identities that were not re-
15 ferred to by name or title in the original 16 reporting;

17 “(iii) the number of targets that were 18 later determined to be located in the 19 United States and, to the extent possible, 20 whether their communications were re-21 viewed; and

22 “(iv) a description of any procedures 23 developed by the head of such element of 24 the intelligence community and approved 25 by the Director of National Intelligence to

1            assess, in a manner consistent with na-
2            tional security, operational requirements
3            and the privacy interests of United States
4            persons, the extent to which the acquisi-
5            tions authorized under subsection (a) ac-
6            quire the communications of United States 7            persons, and the results of any such as-8            sessment.

9            “(B) USE OF REVIEW.—The head of each 10           element of the intelligence community that con-
11           ducts an annual review under subparagraph (A) 12           shall use each such review to evaluate the ade-
13           quacy of the minimization procedures utilized 14           by such element or the application of the mini-15           mization procedures to a particular acquisition 16           authorized under subsection (a).

17           “(C) PROVISION OF REVIEW.—The head of 18           each element of the intelligence community that 19           conducts an annual review under subparagraph 20           (A) shall provide such review to—

21                    “(i) the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-
22                    lance Court;

23                    “(ii) the Attorney General;

24                    “(iii) the Director of National Intel-
25                    ligence;

1                   “(iv) the congressional intelligence 2                   committees; and

3                   “(v) the Committees on the Judiciary
4                   of the House of Representatives and the 5                   Senate.

6           “(m) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this Act shall be 7 construed to require an application under section 104 for 8 an acquisition that is targeted in accordance with this sec-
9 tion at a person reasonably believed to be located outside
10 the United States.

11 “SEC. 703. CERTAIN ACQUISITIONS INSIDE THE UNITED 12                   STATES OF UNITED STATES PERSONS OUT-
13                   SIDE THE UNITED STATES.

14           “(a) JURISDICTION OF THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE
15 SURVEILLANCE COURT.—

16                   “(1) IN GENERAL.—The Foreign Intelligence
17 Surveillance Court shall have jurisdiction to review
18 an application and enter an order approving the tar-19 geting of a United States person reasonably believed 20 to be located outside the United States to acquire 21 foreign intelligence information if the acquisition 22 constitutes electronic surveillance or the acquisition 23 of stored electronic communications or stored elec-
24 tronic data that requires an order under this Act

1 and such acquisition is conducted within the United 2 States.

3 “(2) LIMITATION.—If a United States person
4 targeted under this subsection is reasonably believed 5 to be located in the United States during the pend-6 ency of an order issued pursuant to subsection (c), 7 such acquisition shall cease unless authority, other 8 than under this section, is obtained pursuant to this 9 Act or the targeted United States person is again 10 reasonably believed to be located outside the United 11 States during the pendency of an order issued pur-12 suant to subsection (c).

13 “(b) APPLICATION.—

14 “(1) IN GENERAL.—Each application for an 15 order under this section shall be made by a Federal 16 officer in writing upon oath or affirmation to a 17 judge having jurisdiction under subsection (a)(1).
18 Each application shall require the approval of the 19 Attorney General based upon the Attorney General’s 20 finding that it satisfies the criteria and requirements 21 of such application, as set forth in this section, and 22 shall include—

23 “(A) the identity of the Federal officer 24 making the application;

1           “(B) the identity, if known, or a descrip-
2           tion of the United States person who is the tar-
3           get of the acquisition;

4           “(C) a statement of the facts and cir-
5           cumstances relied upon to justify the appli-6           cant’s belief that the United States person who 7           is the target of the acquisition is—

8                   “(i) a person reasonably believed to be 9                   located outside the United States; and

10                   “(ii) a foreign power, an agent of a
11                   foreign power, or an officer or employee of 12                   a foreign power;

13           “(D) a statement of proposed minimization 14           procedures that—

15                   “(i) in the case of electronic surveil-
16                   lance, meet the definition of minimization
17                   procedures in section 101(h); and

18                   “(ii) in the case of a physical search,
19                   meet the definition of minimization proce-
20                   dures in section 301(4);

21           “(E) a description of the nature of the in-22           formation sought and the type of communica-
23           tions or activities to be subjected to acquisition;

1           “(F) a certification made by the Attorney
2           General or an official specified in section
3           104(a)(6) that—

4                   “(i) the certifying official deems the 5                   information sought to be foreign intel-
6                   ligence information;

7                   “(ii) a significant purpose of the ac-
8                   quisition is to obtain foreign intelligence
9                   information;

10                   “(iii) such information cannot reason-11                   ably be obtained by normal investigative 12                   techniques;

13                   “(iv) identifies the type of foreign in-14                   telligence information being sought accord-15                   ing to the categories described in each sub-16                   paragraph of section 101(e); and 17                   “(v) includes a statement of the basis 18                   for the certification that—

19                           “(I) the information sought is 20                           the type of foreign intelligence infor-21                           mation designated; and 22                           “(II) such information cannot 23                           reasonably be obtained by normal in-24                           vestigative techniques;

1           “(G) a summary statement of the means 2           by which the acquisition will be conducted and 3           whether physical entry is required to effect the 4           acquisition;

5           “(H) the identity of any electronic commu-6           nication service provider necessary to effect the 7           acquisition, provided, however, that the applica-
8           tion is not required to identify the specific fa-9           cilities, places, premises, or property at which 10          the acquisition authorized under this section 11          will be directed or conducted;

12          “(I) a statement of the facts concerning 13          any previous applications that have been made 14          to any judge of the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-
15          lance Court involving the United States person 16          specified in the application and the action taken 17          on each previous application; and 18          “(J) a statement of the period of time for 19          which the acquisition is required to be main-20          tained, provided that such period of time shall 21          not exceed 90 days per application.

22          “(2) OTHER REQUIREMENTS OF THE ATTOR-
23          NEY GENERAL.—The Attorney General may require 24          any other affidavit or certification from any other 25          officer in connection with the application.

1           “(3) OTHER REQUIREMENTS OF THE JUDGE.—

2           The judge may require the applicant to furnish such 3           other information as may be necessary to make the 4           findings required by subsection (c)(1).

5           “(c) ORDER.—

6           “(1) FINDINGS.—Upon an application made
7           pursuant to subsection (b), the Foreign Intelligence
8           Surveillance Court shall enter an ex parte order as 9           requested or as modified by the Court approving the 10          acquisition if the Court finds that—

11          “(A) the application has been made by a
12          Federal officer and approved by the Attorney
13          General;

14          “(B) on the basis of the facts submitted by 15          the applicant, for the United States person who 16          is the target of the acquisition, there is prob-
17          able cause to believe that the target is—

18                 “(i) a person reasonably believed to be

20                 “(ii) a foreign power, an agent of a
21                 foreign power, or an officer or employee of 22                 a foreign power;

23          “(C) the proposed minimization proce-
24          dures—

1                   “(i) in the case of electronic surveil-
2                   lance, meet the definition of minimization
3                   procedures in section 101(h); and

4                   “(ii) in the case of a physical search,
5                   meet the definition of minimization proce-
6                   dures in section 301(4);

7                   “(D) the application that has been filed
8                   contains all statements and certifications re-9                   quired by subsection (b) and the certification or 10                  certifications are not clearly erroneous on the 11                  basis of the statement made under subsection
12                  (b)(1)(F)(v) and any other information fur-
13                  nished under subsection (b)(3).

14                  “(2) PROBABLE CAUSE.—In determining 15                  whether or not probable cause exists for purposes of 16                  paragraph (1)(B), a judge having jurisdiction under 17                  subsection (a)(1) may consider past activities of the 18                  target and facts and circumstances relating to cur-19                  rent or future activities of the target. No United 20                  States person may be considered a foreign power, 21                  agent of a foreign power, or officer or employee of 22                  a foreign power solely upon the basis of activities
23                  protected by the first amendment to the Constitution 24                  of the United States.

25                  “(3) REVIEW.—

1           “(A) LIMITATION ON REVIEW.—Review by 2 a judge having jurisdiction under subsection
3 (a)(1) shall be limited to that required to make 4 the findings described in paragraph (1).

5           “(B) REVIEW OF PROBABLE CAUSE.—If
6 the judge determines that the facts submitted
7 under subsection (b) are insufficient to estab-
8 lish probable cause under paragraph (1)(B), the 9 judge shall enter an order so stating and pro-
10 vide a written statement for the record of the 11 reasons for such determination. The Govern-
12 ment may appeal an order under this subpara-13 graph pursuant to subsection (f).

14           “(C) REVIEW OF MINIMIZATION PROCE-
15 DURES.—If the judge determines that the pro-
16 posed minimization procedures referred to in 17 paragraph (1)(C) do not meet the definition of 18 minimization procedures as required under such 19 paragraph the judge shall enter an order so
20 stating and provide a written statement for the 21 record of the reasons for such determination.
22 The Government may appeal an order under
23 this subparagraph pursuant to subsection (f).

24           “(D) REVIEW OF CERTIFICATION.—If the 25 judge determines that an application under sub-

1 section (b) does not contain all of the required
2 elements, or that the certification or certifi-3 cations are clearly erroneous on the basis of the 4 statement made under subsection (b)(1)(F)(v)
5 and any other information furnished under sub-6 section (b)(3), the judge shall enter an order so 7 stating and provide a written statement for the 8 record of the reasons for such determination.
9 The Government may appeal an order under
10 this subparagraph pursuant to subsection (f).

11 “(4) SPECIFICATIONS.—An order approving an 12 acquisition under this subsection shall specify—

13 “(A) the identity, if known, or a descrip-
14 tion of the United States person who is the tar-15 get of the acquisition identified or described in 16 the application pursuant to subsection
17 (b)(1)(B);

18 “(B) if provided in the application, pursu-
19 ant to subsection (b)(1)(H), the nature and lo-20 cation of each of the facilities or places at 21 which the acquisition will be directed;

22 “(C) the nature of the information sought
23 to be acquired and the type of communications 24 or activities to be subjected to acquisition;

1           “(D) the means by which the acquisition 2           will be conducted and whether physical entry is 3           required to effect the acquisition; and 4           “(E) the period of time during which the 5           acquisition is approved.

6           “(5) DIRECTIONS.—An order approving an ac-7           quisition under this subsection shall direct—

8           “(A) that the minimization procedures re-9           ferred to in paragraph (1)(C), as approved or 10          modified by the Court, be followed;

11          “(B) an electronic communication service
12          provider to provide to the Government forthwith
13          all information, facilities, or assistance nec-
14          essary to accomplish the acquisition authorized 15          under such order in a manner that will protect 16          the secrecy of the acquisition and produce a 17          minimum of interference with the services that 18          such electronic communication service provider
19          is providing to the target of the acquisition;

20          “(C) an electronic communication service
21          provider to maintain under security procedures
22          approved by the Attorney General any records
23          concerning the acquisition or the aid furnished 24          that such electronic communication service pro-25          vider wishes to maintain; and

1           “(D) that the Government compensate, at 2           the prevailing rate, such electronic communica-
3           tion service provider for providing such infor-
4           mation, facilities, or assistance.

5           “(6) DURATION.—An order approved under this 6           subsection shall be effective for a period not to ex-7           ceed 90 days and such order may be renewed for ad-
8           ditional 90-day periods upon submission of renewal
9           applications meeting the requirements of subsection
10          (b).

11          “(7) COMPLIANCE.—At or prior to the end of 12          the period of time for which an acquisition is ap-13          proved by an order or extension under this section, 14          the judge may assess compliance with the minimiza-15          tion procedures referred to in paragraph (1)(C) by 16          reviewing the circumstances under which informa-
17          tion concerning United States persons was acquired,
18          retained, or disseminated.

19          “(d) EMERGENCY AUTHORIZATION.—

20                 “(1) AUTHORITY FOR EMERGENCY AUTHORIZA-
21                 TION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this 22                 Act, if the Attorney General reasonably determines 23                 that—

24                         “(A) an emergency situation exists with re-
25                         spect to the acquisition of foreign intelligence

1 information for which an order may be obtained
2 under subsection (c) before an order author-3 izing such acquisition can with due diligence be 4 obtained, and

5 “(B) the factual basis for issuance of an 6 order under this subsection to approve such ac-
7 quisition exists,

8 the Attorney General may authorize such acquisition
9 if a judge having jurisdiction under subsection (a)(1)
10 is informed by the Attorney General, or a designee
11 of the Attorney General, at the time of such author-
12 ization that the decision has been made to conduct 13 such acquisition and if an application in accordance 14 with this section is made to a judge of the Foreign 15 Intelligence Surveillance Court as soon as prac-
16 ticable, but not more than 7 days after the Attorney
17 General authorizes such acquisition.

18 “(2) MINIMIZATION PROCEDURES.—If the At-
19 torney General authorizes an acquisition under para-20 graph (1), the Attorney General shall require that 21 the minimization procedures referred to in sub-22 section (c)(1)(C) for the issuance of a judicial order 23 be followed.

24 “(3) TERMINATION OF EMERGENCY AUTHOR-
25 IZATION.—In the absence of a judicial order approv-

1       ing an acquisition authorized under paragraph (1), 2       such acquisition shall terminate when the informa-3       tion sought is obtained, when the application for the 4       order is denied, or after the expiration of 7 days
5       from the time of authorization by the Attorney Gen-6       eral, whichever is earliest.

7           “(4) USE OF INFORMATION.—If an application
8       for approval submitted pursuant to paragraph (1) is 9       denied, or in any other case where the acquisition is 10      terminated and no order is issued approving the ac-11      quisition, no information obtained or evidence de-12      rived from such acquisition, except under cir-13      cumstances in which the target of the acquisition is 14      determined not to be a United States person, shall 15      be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed in any 16      trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or before any 17      court, grand jury, department, office, agency, regu-
18      latory body, legislative committee, or other authority
19      of the United States, a State, or political subdivision 20      thereof, and no information concerning any United 21      States person acquired from such acquisition shall 22      subsequently be used or disclosed in any other man-23      ner by Federal officers or employees without the 24      consent of such person, except with the approval of 25      the Attorney General if the information indicates a

1 threat of death or serious bodily harm to any per-2 son.

3 “(e) RELEASE FROM LIABILITY.—Notwithstanding 4 any other provision of law, no cause of action shall lie in 5 any court against any electronic communication service 6 provider for providing any information, facilities, or assist-7 ance in accordance with an order or request for emergency 8 assistance issued pursuant to subsections (c) or (d).

9 “(f) APPEAL.—

10 “(1) APPEAL TO THE FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE
11 SURVEILLANCE COURT OF REVIEW.—The Govern-
12 ment may file an appeal with the Foreign Intel-13 ligence Surveillance Court of Review for review of an 14 order issued pursuant to subsection (c). The Court
15 of Review shall have jurisdiction to consider such ap-16 peal and shall provide a written statement for the 17 record of the reasons for a decision under this para-
18 graph.

19 “(2) CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME COURT.—
20 The Government may file a petition for a writ of 21 certiorari for review of a decision of the Court of Re-
22 view under paragraph (1). The record for such re-23 view shall be transmitted under seal to the Supreme 24 Court of the United States, which shall have juris-25 diction to review such decision.

1       “(g) CONSTRUCTION.—Nothing in this Act shall be
2 construed to require an application under section 104 for
3 an acquisition that is targeted in accordance with this sec-
4 tion at a person reasonably believed to be located outside
5 the United States.

6       “SEC. 704. OTHER ACQUISITIONS TARGETING UNITED 7                               STATES PERSONS OUTSIDE THE UNITED
8                               STATES.

9       “(a) JURISDICTION AND SCOPE.—

10       “(1) JURISDICTION.—The Foreign Intelligence 11 Surveillance Court shall have jurisdiction to enter an 12 order pursuant to subsection (c).

13       “(2) SCOPE.—No department or agency of the 14 Federal Government may intentionally target, for 15 the purpose of acquiring foreign intelligence infor-16 mation, a United States person reasonably believed 17 to be located outside the United States under cir-18 cumstances in which the targeted United States per-19 son has a reasonable expectation of privacy and a 20 warrant would be required if the acquisition were 21 conducted inside the United States for law enforce-22 ment purposes, unless a judge of the Foreign Intel-23 ligence Surveillance Court has entered an order with 24 respect to such targeted United States person or the 25 Attorney General has authorized an emergency ac-

1       quisition pursuant to subsection (c) or (d) or any 2       other provision of this Act.

3               “(3) LIMITATIONS.—

4               “(A) MOVING OR MISIDENTIFIED TAR-5       GETS.—If a targeted United States person is 6       reasonably believed to be in the United States
7       during the pendency of an order issued pursu-8       ant to subsection (c), acquisitions relating to 9       such targeted United States Person shall cease 10      unless authority is obtained pursuant to this 11      Act or the targeted United States person is 12      again reasonably believed to be located outside 13      the United States during the pendency of such 14      order.

15              “(B) APPLICABILITY.—If an acquisition is 16      to be conducted inside the United States and 17      could be authorized under section 703, the ac-18      quisition may only be conducted if authorized 19      under section 703 or in accordance with an-20      other provision of this Act other than this sec-
21      tion.

22              “(b) APPLICATION.—Each application for an order 23      under this section shall be made by a Federal officer in 24      writing upon oath or affirmation to a judge having juris-
25      diction under subsection (a)(1). Each application shall re-

1 quire the approval of the Attorney General based upon the 2 Attorney General's finding that it satisfies the criteria and 3 requirements of such application as set forth in this sec-
4 tion and shall include—

5           “(1) the identity of the Federal officer making 6 the application;

7           “(2) the identity, if known, or a description of 8 the specific United States person who is the target 9 of the acquisition;

10           “(3) a statement of the facts and circumstances 11 relied upon to justify the applicant's belief that the 12 United States person who is the target of the acqui-13 sition is—

14           “(A) a person reasonably believed to be lo-15 cated outside the United States; and 16           “(B) a foreign power, an agent of a foreign 17 power, or an officer or employee of a foreign 18 power;

19           “(4) a statement of proposed minimization pro-20 cedures that—

21           “(A) in the case of electronic surveillance,
22 meet the definition of minimization procedures
23 in section 101(h); and

1           “(B) in the case of a physical search, meet 2           the definition of minimization procedures in 3           section 301(4);

4           “(5) a certification made by the Attorney Gen-5           eral, an official specified in section 104(a)(6), or the 6           head of an element of the intelligence community 7           that—

8                   “(A) the certifying official deems the infor-9                   mation sought to be foreign intelligence infor-10                  mation; and 11                  “(B) a significant purpose of the acquisi-12                  tion is to obtain foreign intelligence informa-

13                  tion;

14           “(6) a statement of the facts concerning any 15           previous applications that have been made to any 16           judge of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court 17           involving the United States person specified in the 18           application and the action taken on each previous 19           application; and 20           “(7) a statement of the period of time for which 21           the acquisition is required to be maintained, pro-

22           vided that such period of time shall not exceed 90 23           days per application.

24           “(c) ORDER.—

1           “(1) FINDINGS.—Upon an application made
2 pursuant to subsection (b), the Foreign Intelligence
3 Surveillance Court shall enter an ex parte order as 4 requested or as modified by the Court if the Court 5 finds that—

6           “(A) the application has been made by a
7 Federal officer and approved by the Attorney
8 General;

9           “(B) on the basis of the facts submitted by 10 the applicant, for the United States person who 11 is the target of the acquisition, there is prob-
12 able cause to believe that the target is—

13           “(i) a person reasonably believed to be 14 located outside the United States; and

15           “(ii) a foreign power, an agent of a 16 foreign power, or an officer or employee of 17 a foreign power;

18           “(C) the proposed minimization proce-
19 dures—

20           “(i) in the case of electronic surveil-
21 lance, meet the definition of minimization
22 procedures in section 101(h); and

23           “(ii) in the case of a physical search,
24 meet the definition of minimization proce-
25 dures in section 301(4);

1           “(D) the application that has been filed
2           contains all statements and certifications re-
3           quired by subsection (b) and the certification
4           provided under subsection (b)(5) is not clearly 5           erroneous on the basis of the information fur-
6           nished under subsection (b).

7           “(2) PROBABLE CAUSE.—In determining 8           whether or not probable cause exists for purposes of 9           an order under paragraph (1)(B), a judge having ju-10          risdiction under subsection (a)(1) may consider past 11          activities of the target and facts and circumstances 12          relating to current or future activities of the target.
13          No United States person may be considered a for-14          eign power, agent of a foreign power, or officer or 15          employee of a foreign power solely upon the basis of 16          activities protected by the first amendment to the 17          Constitution of the United States.

19                 “(A) LIMITATIONS ON REVIEW.—Review
20                 by a judge having jurisdiction under subsection
21                 (a)(1) shall be limited to that required to make 22                 the findings described in paragraph (1). The 23                 judge shall not have jurisdiction to review the 24                 means by which an acquisition under this sec-25                 tion may be conducted.

1           “(B) REVIEW OF PROBABLE CAUSE.—If
2           the judge determines that the facts submitted
3           under subsection (b) are insufficient to estab-
4           lish probable cause under paragraph (1)(B), the
5           judge shall enter an order so stating and pro-
6           vide a written statement for the record of the 7           reasons for such determination. The Govern-
8           ment may appeal an order under this clause 9           pursuant to subsection (e).

10           “(C) REVIEW OF MINIMIZATION PROCE-
11           DURES.—If the judge determines that the pro-
12           posed minimization procedures referred to in 13           paragraph (1)(C) do not meet the definition of 14           minimization procedures as required under such 15           paragraph, the judge shall enter an order so
16           stating and provide a written statement for the 17           record of the reasons for such determination.
18           The Government may appeal an order under 19           this clause pursuant to subsection (e).

20           “(D) SCOPE OF REVIEW OF CERTIFI-
21           CATION.—If the judge determines that an appli-22           cation under subsection (b) does not contain all 23           the required elements, or that the certification
24           provided under subsection (b)(5) is clearly erro-
25           neous on the basis of the information furnished

1           under subsection (b), the judge shall enter an 2           order so stating and provide a written state-
3           ment for the record of the reasons for such de-4           termination. The Government may appeal an 5           order under this clause pursuant to subsection 6           (e).

7           “(4) DURATION.—An order under this para-
8           graph shall be effective for a period not to exceed 90 9           days and such order may be renewed for additional 10          90-day periods upon submission of renewal applica-11          tions meeting the requirements of subsection (b).

12          “(5) COMPLIANCE.—At or prior to the end of 13          the period of time for which an order or extension 14          is granted under this section, the judge may assess 15          compliance with the minimization procedures re-
16          ferred to in paragraph (1)(C) by reviewing the cir-17          cumstances under which information concerning 18          United States persons was disseminated, provided 19          that the judge may not inquire into the cir-20          cumstances relating to the conduct of the acquisi-
21          tion.

23                  “(1) AUTHORITY FOR EMERGENCY AUTHORIZA-
24          TION.—Notwithstanding any other provision of this

1 section, if the Attorney General reasonably deter-2 mines that—

3 “(A) an emergency situation exists with re-
4 spect to the acquisition of foreign intelligence
5 information for which an order may be obtained
6 under subsection (c) before an order under that 7 subsection may, with due diligence, be obtained,
8 and

9 “(B) the factual basis for the issuance of 10 an order under this section exists,
11 the Attorney General may authorize such acquisition
12 if a judge having jurisdiction under subsection (a)(1)
13 is informed by the Attorney General or a designee
14 of the Attorney General at the time of such author-
15 ization that the decision has been made to conduct 16 such acquisition and if an application in accordance 17 with this section is made to a judge of the Foreign
18 Intelligence Surveillance Court as soon as prac-
19 ticable, but not more than 7 days after the Attorney
20 General authorizes such acquisition.

21 “(2) MINIMIZATION PROCEDURES.—If the At-
22 torney General authorizes an emergency acquisition
23 under paragraph (1), the Attorney General shall re-24 quire that the minimization procedures referred to in 25 subsection (c)(1)(C) be followed.

1           “(3) TERMINATION OF EMERGENCY AUTHOR-
2           IZATION.—In the absence of an order under sub-3           section (c), the acquisition authorized under para-
4           graph (1) shall terminate when the information
5           sought is obtained, if the application for the order 6           is denied, or after the expiration of 7 days from the 7           time of authorization by the Attorney General, 8           whichever is earliest.

9           “(4) USE OF INFORMATION.—If an application
10          submitted pursuant to paragraph (1) is denied, or in 11          any other case where an acquisition under this sec-12          tion is terminated and no order with respect to the 13          target of the acquisition is issued under subsection 14          (c), no information obtained or evidence derived 15          from such acquisition, except under circumstances in 16          which the target of the acquisition is determined not 17          to be a United States person, shall be received in 18          evidence or otherwise disclosed in any trial, hearing, 19          or other proceeding in or before any court, grand 20          jury, department, office, agency, regulatory body, 21          legislative committee, or other authority of the 22          United States, a State, or political subdivision there-23          of, and no information concerning any United States
24          person acquired from such acquisition shall subse-25          quently be used or disclosed in any other manner by

1 Federal officers or employees without the consent of 2 such person, except with the approval of the Attor-
3 ney General if the information indicates a threat of 4 death or serious bodily harm to any person.

5 “(e) APPEAL.—

6 “(1) APPEAL TO THE COURT OF REVIEW.—The 7 Government may file an appeal with the Foreign In-8 telligence Surveillance Court of Review for review of 9 an order issued pursuant to subsection (c). The 10 Court of Review shall have jurisdiction to consider 11 such appeal and shall provide a written statement 12 for the record of the reasons for a decision under 13 this paragraph.

14 “(2) CERTIORARI TO THE SUPREME COURT.—
15 The Government may file a petition for a writ of 16 certiorari for review of a decision of the Court of Re-17 view issued under paragraph (1). The record for 18 such review shall be transmitted under seal to the 19 Supreme Court of the United States, which shall 20 have jurisdiction to review such decision.

21 “SEC. 705. JOINT APPLICATIONS AND CONCURRENT AU-
22 THORIZATIONS.

23 “(a) JOINT APPLICATIONS AND ORDERS.—If an ac-
24 quisition targeting a United States person under section 25 703 or section 704 is proposed to be conducted both inside

1 and outside the United States, a judge having jurisdiction
2 under section 703(a)(1) or section 704(a)(1) may issue si-
3 multaneously, upon the request of the Government in a 4 joint application complying with the requirements of sec-
5 tion 703(b) and section 704(b), orders under section 6 703(c) and section 704(c), as appropriate.

7 “(b) CONCURRENT AUTHORIZATION.—

8 “(1) ELECTRONIC SURVEILLANCE.—If an order
9 authorizing electronic surveillance has been obtained 10 under section 105 and that order is still in effect, 11 during the pendency of that order the Attorney Gen-
12 eral may authorize, without an order under section 13 703 or 704, electronic surveillance for the purpose of 14 acquiring foreign intelligence information targeting 15 that United States person while such person is rea-16 sonably believed to be located outside the United 17 States.

18 “(2) PHYSICAL SEARCH.—If an order author-19 izing a physical search has been obtained under sec-20 tion 304 and that order is still in effect, during the 21 pendency of that order the Attorney General may 22 authorize, without an order under section 703 or 23 704, a physical search for the purpose of acquiring 24 foreign intelligence information targeting that

1 United States person while such person is reason-
2 ably believed to be located outside the United States.

3 “SEC. 706. USE OF INFORMATION ACQUIRED UNDER TITLE
4 VII.

5 “Information acquired pursuant to section 702 or 6 703 shall be considered information acquired from an elec-
7 tronic surveillance pursuant to title I for purposes of sec-
8 tion 106.

9 “SEC. 707. CONGRESSIONAL OVERSIGHT.

10 “(a) SEMIANNUAL REPORT.—Not less frequently 11 than once every 6 months, the Attorney General shall fully 12 inform, in a manner consistent with national security, the 13 congressional intelligence committees and the Committees
14 on the Judiciary of the Senate and the House of Rep-15 resentatives, concerning the implementation of this title.

16 “(b) CONTENT.—Each report made under subsection
17 (a) shall include—

18 “(1) with respect to section 702—

19 “(A) any certifications made under section 20 702(g) during the reporting period;

21 “(B) with respect to each certification
22 made under paragraph (1)(B) of such section, 23 the reasons for exercising the authority under 24 such paragraph;

1           “(C) any directives issued under section 2           702(h) during the reporting period;

3           “(D) a description of the judicial review
4           during the reporting period of any such certifi-
5           cations and targeting and minimization proce-6           dures adopted pursuant to subsections (d) and 7           (e) of section 702 utilized with respect to such 8           acquisition, including a copy of any order or 9           pleading in connection with such review that 10          contains a significant legal interpretation of the 11          provisions of section 702;

12          “(E) any actions taken to challenge or en-13          force a directive under paragraph (4) or (5) of 14          section 702(h);

15          “(F) any compliance reviews conducted by 16          the Attorney General or the Director of Na-17          tional Intelligence of acquisitions authorized 18          under subsection 702(a);

19          “(G) a description of any incidents of non-20          compliance with a directive issued by the Attor-
21          ney General and the Director of National Intel-22          ligence under subsection 702(h), including—

23                  “(i) incidents of noncompliance by an 24                  element of the intelligence community with 25                  procedures and guidelines adopted pursu-

1 ant to subsections (d), (e), and (f) of sec-2 tion 702; and

3 “(ii) incidents of noncompliance by a
4 specified person to whom the Attorney
5 General and Director of National Intel-
6 ligence issued a directive under subsection 7 702(h); and

8 “(H) any procedures implementing section 9 702;

10 “(2) with respect to section 703—

11 “(A) the total number of applications made
12 for orders under section 703(b);

13 “(B) the total number of such orders—

14 “(i) granted;

15 “(ii) modified; or

16 “(iii) denied; and

17 “(C) the total number of emergency acqui-
18 sitions authorized by the Attorney General 19 under section 703(d) and the total number of 20 subsequent orders approving or denying such 21 acquisitions; and

22 “(3) with respect to section 704—

23 “(A) the total number of applications made
24 for orders under 704(b);

25 “(B) the total number of such orders—

1                   “(i) granted;
2                   “(ii) modified; or
3                   “(iii) denied; and
4                   “(C) the total number of emergency acqui-
5                   sitions authorized by the Attorney General
6                   under subsection 704(d) and the total number 7                   of subsequent orders approving or denying such 8                   applications.

9   “SEC. 708. SAVINGS PROVISION.

10           “Nothing in this title shall be construed to limit the 11           authority of the Federal Government to seek an order or 12           authorization under, or otherwise engage in any activity 13           that is authorized under, any other title of this Act.”.

- 15 as subsections (d) through (h), respectively;
- 16 (6) by amending subsection (e), as redesignated
- 17 by paragraph (5) of this section, to read as follows:
- 18 “(e)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this
- 19 title, the Attorney General may authorize the emergency
- 20 employment of electronic surveillance if the Attorney Gen-
- 21 eral—
- 22 “(A) reasonably determines that an emer-
- 23 gency situation exists with respect to the em-
- 24 ployment of electronic surveillance to obtain for-
- 25 eign intelligence information before an order

1 authorizing such surveillance can with due dili-
2 gence be obtained;

3 “(B) reasonably determines that the fac-
4 tual basis for the issuance of an order under 5 this title to approve such electronic surveillance 6 exists;

7 “(C) informs, either personally or through 8 a designee, a judge having jurisdiction under 9 section 103 at the time of such authorization 10 that the decision has been made to employ 11 emergency electronic surveillance; and

12 “(D) makes an application in accordance 13 with this title to a judge having jurisdiction 14 under section 103 as soon as practicable, but 15 not later than 7 days after the Attorney Gen-16 eral authorizes such surveillance.

17 “(2) If the Attorney General authorizes the 18 emergency employment of electronic surveillance
19 under paragraph (1), the Attorney General shall re-20 quire that the minimization procedures required by 21 this title for the issuance of a judicial order be fol-22 lowed.

23 “(3) In the absence of a judicial order approv-
24 ing such electronic surveillance, the surveillance shall 25 terminate when the information sought is obtained,

1       when the application for the order is denied, or after
2       the expiration of 7 days from the time of authoriza-
3       tion by the Attorney General, whichever is earliest.

4           “(4) A denial of the application made under 5       this subsection may be reviewed as provided in sec-
6       tion 103.

7           “(5) In the event that such application for ap-8       proval is denied, or in any other case where the elec-9       tronic surveillance is terminated and no order is 10      issued approving the surveillance, no information ob-
11      tained or evidence derived from such surveillance
12      shall be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed
13      in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or be-
14      fore any court, grand jury, department, office, agen-
15      cy, regulatory body, legislative committee, or other
16      authority of the United States, a State, or political 17      subdivision thereof, and no information concerning 18      any United States person acquired from such sur-19      veillance shall subsequently be used or disclosed in 20      any other manner by Federal officers or employees
21      without the consent of such person, except with the 22      approval of the Attorney General if the information
23      indicates a threat of death or serious bodily harm to 24      any person.

1           “(6) The Attorney General shall assess compli-2           ance with the requirements of paragraph (5).”; and

3           (7) by adding at the end the following:

4           “(i) In any case in which the Government makes an 5           application to a judge under this title to conduct electronic 6           surveillance involving communications and the judge 7           grants such application, upon the request of the applicant, 8           the judge shall also authorize the installation and use of 9           pen registers and trap and trace devices, and direct the 10          disclosure of the information set forth in section 11          402(d)(2).”.

12   SEC. 106. USE OF INFORMATION.

13          Subsection (i) of section 106 of the Foreign Intel-14          ligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (8 U.S.C. 1806) is 15          amended by striking “radio communication” and inserting 16          “communication”.

17   SEC. 107. AMENDMENTS FOR PHYSICAL SEARCHES.

18          (a) APPLICATIONS.—Section 303 of the Foreign In-19          telligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1823) is 20          amended—

21                 (1) in subsection (a)—

22                         (A) by striking paragraph (2);

23                         (B) by redesignating paragraphs (3)
24                         through (9) as paragraphs (2) through (8), re-25                         spectively;

1 (C) in paragraph (2), as redesignated by 2 subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, by striking 3 “detailed”; and

4 (D) in paragraph (3)(C), as redesignated
5 by subparagraph (B) of this paragraph, by in-6 serting “or is about to be” before “owned”; and 7 (2) in subsection (d)(1)(A), by striking “or the 8 Director of National Intelligence” and inserting “the 9 Director of National Intelligence, or the Director of 10 the Central Intelligence Agency”.

11 (b) ORDERS.—Section 304 of the Foreign Intel-12 ligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1824) is 13 amended—

14 (1) in subsection (a)—

15 (A) by striking paragraph (1); and

16 (B) by redesignating paragraphs (2)
17 through (5) as paragraphs (1) through (4), re-18 spectively; and

19 (2) by amending subsection (e) to read as fol-20 lows:

21 “(e)(1) Notwithstanding any other provision of this
22 title, the Attorney General may authorize the emergency
23 employment of a physical search if the Attorney General—

24 “(A) reasonably determines that an emer-
25 gency situation exists with respect to the em-

1           ployment of a physical search to obtain foreign 2           intelligence information before an order author-
3           izing such physical search can with due dili-
4           gence be obtained;

5           “(B) reasonably determines that the fac-
6           tual basis for issuance of an order under this 7           title to approve such physical search exists;

8           “(C) informs, either personally or through 9           a designee, a judge of the Foreign Intelligence 10          Surveillance Court at the time of such author-11          ization that the decision has been made to em-12          ploy an emergency physical search; and

13          “(D) makes an application in accordance 14          with this title to a judge of the Foreign Intel-15          ligence Surveillance Court as soon as prac-16          ticable, but not more than 7 days after the At-17          torney General authorizes such physical search.

18          “(2) If the Attorney General authorizes the 19          emergency employment of a physical search under 20          paragraph (1), the Attorney General shall require 21          that the minimization procedures required by this 22          title for the issuance of a judicial order be followed.

23          “(3) In the absence of a judicial order approv-
24          ing such physical search, the physical search shall 25          terminate when the information sought is obtained,

1       when the application for the order is denied, or after
2       the expiration of 7 days from the time of authoriza-
3       tion by the Attorney General, whichever is earliest.

4             “(4) A denial of the application made under
5       this subsection may be reviewed as provided in sec-
6       tion 103.

7             “(5)(A) In the event that such application for 8       approval is denied, or in any other case where the 9       physical search is terminated and no order is issued 10      approving the physical search, no information ob-
11      tained or evidence derived from such physical search
12      shall be received in evidence or otherwise disclosed
13      in any trial, hearing, or other proceeding in or be-
14      fore any court, grand jury, department, office, agen-
15      cy, regulatory body, legislative committee, or other
16      authority of the United States, a State, or political 17      subdivision thereof, and no information concerning
18      any United States person acquired from such phys-19      ical search shall subsequently be used or disclosed in 20      any other manner by Federal officers or employees
21      without the consent of such person, except with the 22      approval of the Attorney General if the information
23      indicates a threat of death or serious bodily harm to 24      any person.

1           (1) IN GENERAL.—Subsection (a) of section 2           103 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 3           1978, as amended by subsection (a) of this section, 4           is further amended—

5                   (A) by inserting “(1)” after “(a)”; and

6                   (B) by adding at the end the following new 7           paragraph:

8           “(2)(A) The court established under this subsection, 9           on its own initiative or upon the request of the Govern-
10          ment in any proceeding or a party under section 501(f)
11          or paragraph (4) or (5) of section 703(h), may hold a 12          hearing or rehearing, en banc, when ordered by a majority 13          of the judges that constitute such court upon a determina-14          tion that—

15                   “(i) en banc consideration is necessary to se-16                  cure or maintain uniformity of the court’s decisions; 17                  or

18                   “(ii) the proceeding involves a question of ex-19                  ceptional importance.

20           “(B) Any authority granted by this Act to a judge 21          of the court established under this subsection may be exer-
22          cised by the court en banc. When exercising such author-23          ity, the court en banc shall comply with any requirements 24          of this Act on the exercise of such authority.

1       “(C) For purposes of this paragraph, the court en
2 banc shall consist of all judges who constitute the court
3 established under this subsection.”

4           (2) CONFORMING AMENDMENTS.—The Foreign 5 Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 is further
6 amended—

7           (A) in subsection (a) of section 103, as 8 amended by this subsection, by inserting “(ex-9 cept when sitting en banc under paragraph 10 (2))” after “no judge designated under this 11 subsection”; and

12           (B) in section 302(c) (50 U.S.C. 1822(c)), 13 by inserting “(except when sitting en banc)”
14 after “except that no judge”.

15       (c) STAY OR MODIFICATION DURING AN APPEAL.—
16 Section 103 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act
17 of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1803) is amended—

18           (1) by redesignating subsection (f) as sub-19 section (g); and 20           (2) by inserting after subsection (e) the fol-

21 lowing new subsection:

22       “(f)(1) A judge of the court established under sub-23 section (a), the court established under subsection (b) or 24 a judge of that court, or the Supreme Court of the United 25 States or a justice of that court, may, in accordance with

1 the rules of their respective courts, enter a stay of an order
2 or an order modifying an order of the court established 3 under subsection (a) or the court established under sub-4 section (b) entered under any title of this Act, while the 5 court established under subsection (a) conducts a rehear-
6 ing, while an appeal is pending to the court established 7 under subsection (b), or while a petition of certiorari is 8 pending in the Supreme Court of the United States, or 9 during the pendency of any review by that court.

10 “(2) The authority described in paragraph (1) shall 11 apply to an order entered under any provision of this 12 Act.”.

13 (d) AUTHORITY OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE SUR-
14 VEILLANCE COURT.—Section 103 of the Foreign Intel-15 ligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1803), as 16 amended by this Act, is further amended by adding at the 17 end the following:

18 “(i) Nothing in this Act shall be construed to reduce 19 or contravene the inherent authority of the court estab-
20 lished by subsection (a) to determine or enforce compli-21 ance with an order or a rule of such court or with a proce-22 dure approved by such court.”.

23 SEC. 110. INSPECTOR GENERAL REVIEW OF PREVIOUS AC-
24 TIONS.

25 (a) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

1           (1) APPROPRIATE COMMITTEES OF CON-
2           GRESS.—The term “appropriate committees of Con-3           gress” means—

4                   (A) the Select Committee on Intelligence
5                   and the Committee on the Judiciary of the Sen-6                   ate; and

7                   (B) the Permanent Select Committee on 8                   Intelligence and the Committee on the Judici-9                   ary of the House of Representatives.

11           COURT.—The term “Foreign Intelligence Surveil-12           lance Court” means the court established by section 13           103(a) of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act 14           of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1803(a)).

15           (3) PRESIDENT’S SURVEILLANCE PROGRAM AND 16           PROGRAM.—The terms “President’s Surveillance 17           Program” and “Program” mean the intelligence ac-18           tivity involving communications that was authorized 19           by the President during the period beginning on 20           September 11, 2001, and ending on January 17, 21           2007, including the program referred to by the 22           President in a radio address on December 17, 2005
23           (commonly known as the Terrorist Surveillance Pro-24           gram).

25           (b) REVIEWS.—

1           (1) REQUIREMENT TO CONDUCT.—The Inspec-2           tors General of the Department of Justice, the Of-3           fice of the Director of National Intelligence, the Na-4           tional Security Agency, and any other element of the 5           intelligence community that participated in the 6           President’s Surveillance Program shall complete a 7           comprehensive review of, with respect to the over-8           sight authority and responsibility of each such In-9           spector General—

10                   (A) all of the facts necessary to describe 11                   the establishment, implementation, product, and 12                   use of the product of the Program;

13                   (B) the procedures and substance of, and 14                   access to, the legal reviews of the Program;

15                   (C) communications with and participation 16                   of individuals and entities in the private sector
17                   related to the Program;

18                   (D) interaction with the Foreign Intel-19                   ligence Surveillance Court and transition to 20                   court orders related to the Program; and 21                   (E) any other matters identified by any 22                   such Inspector General that would enable that 23                   Inspector General to complete a review of the 24                   Program, with respect to such Department or 25                   element.

1 (2) COOPERATION AND COORDINATION.—

2 (A) COOPERATION.—Each Inspector Gen-
3 eral required to conduct a review under para-4 graph (1) shall—

5 (i) work in conjunction, to the extent
6 practicable, with any other Inspector Gen-7 eral required to conduct such a review; and 8 (ii) utilize, to the extent practicable,

9 and not unnecessarily duplicate or delay
10 such reviews or audits that have been com-11 pleted or are being undertaken by any such 12 Inspector General or by any other office of 13 the Executive Branch related to the Pro-
14 gram.

15 (B) COORDINATION.—The Inspectors Gen-
16 eral shall designate one of the Inspectors Gen-
17 eral required to conduct a review under para-
18 graph (1) that is appointed by the President, by 19 and with the advice and consent of the Senate, 20 to coordinate the conduct of the reviews and the 21 preparation of the reports.

22 (c) REPORTS.—

23 (1) PRELIMINARY REPORTS.—Not later than 60
24 days after the date of the enactment of this Act, the 25 Inspectors General of the Department of Justice, the

1 Office of the Director of National Intelligence, the
2 National Security Agency, and any other Inspector
3 General required to conduct a review under sub-
4 section (b)(1) shall submit to the appropriate com-
5 mittees of Congress an interim report that describes 6 the planned scope of such review.

7 (2) FINAL REPORT.—Not later than 1 year
8 after the date of the enactment of this Act, the In-9 spectors General of the Department of Justice, the 10 Office of the Director of National Intelligence, the
11 National Security Agency, and any other Inspector
12 General required to conduct a review under sub-
13 section (b)(1) shall submit to the appropriate com-
14 mittees of Congress and the Commission established 15 under section 301(a) a comprehensive report on such 16 reviews that includes any recommendations of any 17 such Inspectors General within the oversight author-18 ity and responsibility of any such Inspector General.

19 (3) FORM.—A report submitted under this sub-20 section shall be submitted in unclassified form, but 21 may include a classified annex. The unclassified re-22 port shall not disclose the name or identity of any 23 individual or entity of the private sector that partici-
24 pated in the Program or with whom there was com-

1       munication about the Program, to the extent that 2       information is classified.

3       (d) RESOURCES.—

4           (1) EXPEDITED SECURITY CLEARANCE.—The 5       Director of National Intelligence shall ensure that 6       the process for the investigation and adjudication of 7       an application by an Inspector General or any ap-
8       propriate staff of an Inspector General for a security 9       clearance necessary for the conduct of the review 10      under subsection (b)(1) is carried out as expedi-
11      tiously as possible.

12          (2) ADDITIONAL PERSONNEL FOR THE INSPEC-13      TORS GENERAL.—An Inspector General required to 14      conduct a review under subsection (b)(1) and submit 15      a report under subsection (c) is authorized to hire 16      such additional personnel as may be necessary to 17      carry out such review and prepare such report in a 18      prompt and timely manner. Personnel authorized to 19      be hired under this paragraph—

20           (A) shall perform such duties relating to 21           such a review as the relevant Inspector General 22           shall direct; and

23           (B) are in addition to any other personnel 24           authorized by law.

1 SEC. 111. WEAPONS OF MASS DESTRUCTION.

2 (a) DEFINITIONS.—

3 (1) FOREIGN POWER.—Subsection (a) of sec-
4 tion 101 of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act
5 of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801(a)) is amended—

6 (A) in paragraph (5), by striking “persons; 7 or” and inserting “persons;”;

8 (B) in paragraph (6), by striking the pe-9 riod and inserting “; or”; and 10 (C) by adding at the end the following new 11 paragraph:

12 “(7) an entity not substantially composed of 13 United States persons that is engaged in the inter-14 national proliferation of weapons of mass destruc-
15 tion.”.

16 (2) AGENT OF A FOREIGN POWER.—Subsection
17 (b)(1) of such section 101 is amended—

18 (A) in subparagraph (B), by striking “or” 19 at the end; and

20 (B) by adding at the end the following new 21 subparagraph:

22 “(D) engages in the international prolifera-
23 tion of weapons of mass destruction, or activi-24 ties in preparation therefor; or”.

25 (3) FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE INFORMATION.—

26 Subsection (e)(1)(B) of such section 101 is amended

1 by striking “sabotage or international terrorism” 2 and inserting “sabotage, international terrorism, or 3 the international proliferation of weapons of mass 4 destruction”.

5 (4) WEAPON OF MASS DESTRUCTION.—Such 6 section 101 is amended by adding at the end the fol-
7 lowing new subsection:

8 “(p) ‘Weapon of mass destruction’ means—

9 “(1) any explosive, incendiary, or poison gas de-10 vice that is intended or has the capability to cause 11 a mass casualty incident;

12 “(2) any weapon that is designed or intended to 13 cause death or serious bodily injury to a significant 14 number of persons through the release, dissemina-15 tion, or impact of toxic or poisonous chemicals or 16 their precursors;

17 “(3) any weapon involving a biological agent, 18 toxin, or vector (as such terms are defined in section 19 178 of title 18, United States Code) that is de-20 signed, intended, or has the capability of causing 21 death, illness, or serious bodily injury to a signifi-
22 cant number of persons; or

23 “(4) any weapon that is designed, intended, or 24 has the capability of releasing radiation or radioac-

1 tivity causing death, illness, or serious bodily injury
2 to a significant number of persons.”.

3 (b) USE OF INFORMATION.—

4 (1) IN GENERAL.—Section 106(k)(1)(B) of the 5 Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50
6 U.S.C. 1806(k)(1)(B)) is amended by striking “sab-
7 otage or international terrorism” and inserting “sab-8 otage, international terrorism, or the international 9 proliferation of weapons of mass destruction”.

10 (2) PHYSICAL SEARCHES.—Section
11 305(k)(1)(B) of such Act (50 U.S.C. 1825(k)(1)(B)) 12 is amended by striking “sabotage or international 13 terrorism” and inserting “sabotage, international 14 terrorism, or the international proliferation of weap-15 ons of mass destruction”.

16 (c) TECHNICAL AND CONFORMING AMENDMENT.—
17 Section 301(1) of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance 18 Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1821(1)) is amended by inserting 19 “weapon of mass destruction,” after “person,”.

20 SEC. 112. STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.

21 (a) IN GENERAL.—Section 109 of the Foreign Intel-22 ligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1809) is 23 amended by adding at the end the following new sub-
24 section:

1       “(e) STATUTE OF LIMITATIONS.—No person shall be 2 prosecuted, tried, or punished for any offense under this 3 section unless the indictment is found or the information
4 is instituted not later than 10 years after the commission 5 of the offense.”.

6       (b) APPLICATION.—The amendment made by sub-7 section (a) shall apply to any offense committed before the 8 date of the enactment of this Act if the statute of limita-9 tions applicable to that offense has not run as of such 10 date.

11 TITLE II—PROTECTION OF PER- 12 SONS ASSISTING THE GOV-
13 ERNMENT

14 SEC. 201. STATUTORY DEFENSES.

15       The Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978
16 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.) is amended by adding after title 17 VII the following:

18 “TITLE VIII—PROTECTION OF 19 PERSONS ASSISTING THE 20 GOVERNMENT

21 “SEC. 801. DEFINITIONS.

22       “In this title:

23           “(1) ASSISTANCE.—The term ‘assistance’ 24 means the provision of, or the provision of access to, 25 information (including communication contents,

1 communications records, or other information relat-
2 ing to a customer or communication), facilities, or 3 another form of assistance.

4 “(2) ATTORNEY GENERAL.—The term ‘Attor-
5 ney General’ has the meaning given that term in 6 section 101(g).

7 “(3) CONTENTS.—The term ‘contents’ has the 8 meaning given that term in section 101(n).

9 “(4) COVERED CIVIL ACTION.—The term ‘cov-
10 ered civil action’ means a suit in Federal or State 11 court against any person for providing assistance to 12 an element of the intelligence community.

13 “(5) ELECTRONIC COMMUNICATION SERVICE
14 PROVIDER.—The term ‘electronic communication 15 service provider’ means—

16 “(A) a telecommunications carrier, as that 17 term is defined in section 3 of the Communica-
18 tions Act of 1934 (47 U.S.C. 153);

19 “(B) a provider of electronic communica-
20 tion service, as that term is defined in section
21 2510 of title 18, United States Code;

22 “(C) a provider of a remote computing
23 service, as that term is defined in section 2711
24 of title 18, United States Code;

1           “(D) any other communication service pro-
2           vider who has access to wire or electronic com-3           munications either as such communications are 4           transmitted or as such communications are 5           stored;

6           “(E) a parent, subsidiary, affiliate, suc-7           cessor, or assignee of an entity described in 8           subparagraph (A), (B), (C), or (D); or 9           “(F) an officer, employee, or agent of an 10          entity described in subparagraph (A), (B), (C), 11          (D), or (E).

12          “(6) INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY.—The term
13          ‘intelligence community’ has the meaning given that 14          term in section 3(4) of the National Security Act of 15          1947 (50 U.S.C. 401a(4)).

16          “(7) PERSON.—The term ‘person’ means—

17                 “(A) an electronic communication service 18                 provider; or

19                 “(B) a landlord, custodian, or other person 20                 who may be authorized or required to furnish 21                 assistance pursuant to—

22                         “(i) an order of the court established 23                         under section 103(a) directing such assist-24                         ance;

1                   “(ii) a certification in writing under 2                   section 2511(2)(a)(ii)(B) or 2709(b) of 3                   title 18, United States Code; or

4                   “(iii) a directive under section
5                   102(a)(4), 105B(e), as added by section 2
6                   of the Protect America Act of 2007 (Public 7                   Law 110-55), or 703(h).

8                   “(8) STATE.—The term ‘State’ means any 9                   State, political subdivision of a State, the Common-10                  wealth of Puerto Rico, the District of Columbia, and 11                  any territory or possession of the United States, and 12                  includes any officer, public utility commission, or 13                  other body authorized to regulate an electronic com-14                  munication service provider.

15                  “SEC. 802. PROCEDURES FOR COVERED CIVIL ACTIONS.

16                  “(a) INTERVENTION BY GOVERNMENT.— In any cov-
17                  ered civil action, the court shall permit the Government 18                  to intervene. Whether or not the Government intervenes 19                  in the civil action, the Attorney General may submit any 20                  information in any form the Attorney General determines 21                  is appropriate and the court shall consider all such sub-22                  missions.

23                  “(b) FACTUAL AND LEGAL DETERMINATIONS.—In 24                  any covered civil action, any party may submit to the court 25                  evidence, briefs, arguments, or other information on any

1 matter with respect to which a privilege based on state
2 secrets is asserted. The court shall review any such sub-3 mission in accordance with the procedures set forth in sec-
4 tion 106(f) and may, based on the review, make any ap-5 propriate determination of fact or law. The court may, on 6 motion of the Attorney General, take any additional ac-
7 tions the court deems necessary to protect classified infor-
8 mation. The court may, to the extent practicable and con-
9 sistent with national security, request that any party 10 present briefs and arguments on any legal question the 11 court determines is raised by such a submission even if 12 that party does not have full access to the submission. The 13 court shall consider whether the employment of a special 14 master or an expert witness, or both, would facilitate pro-15 ceedings under this section.

16       “(c) LOCATION OF REVIEW.—The court may conduct 17 the review in a location and facility specified by the Attor-
18 ney General as necessary to ensure security.

19       “(d) REMOVAL.—A covered civil action that is 20 brought in a State court shall be deemed to arise under 21 the Constitution and laws of the United States and shall 22 be removable under section 1441 of title 28, United States 23 Code.

24       “(e) SPECIAL RULE FOR CERTAIN CASES.—For any 25 covered civil action alleging that a person provided assist-

1 ance to an element of the intelligence community pursuant 2 to a request or directive during the period from September
3 11, 2001 through January 17, 2007, the Attorney General
4 shall provide to the court any request or directive related 5 to the allegations under the procedures set forth in sub-6 section (b).

7 “(f) APPLICABILITY.—This section shall apply to a 8 civil action pending on or filed after the date of the enact-9 ment of this Act.”

10 SEC. 202. TECHNICAL AMENDMENTS.

11 The table of contents in the first section of the For-12 eign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C.
13 1801 et seq.) is amended by adding at the end the fol-
14 lowing:

“TITLE VIII-PROTECTION OF PERSONS ASSISTING THE

“Sec. 801. Definitions

“Sec. 802. Procedures for covered civil actions.”

15 TITLE III—COMMISSION ON 16 WARRANTLESS ELECTRONIC
17 SURVEILLANCE ACTIVITIES

18 SEC. 301. COMMISSION ON WARRANTLESS ELECTRONIC 19 SURVEILLANCE ACTIVITIES.

20 (a) ESTABLISHMENT OF COMMISSION.—There is es-21 tablished in the legislative branch a commission to be 22 known as the “Commission on Warrantless Electronic

1 Surveillance Activities” (in this section referred to as the 2 “Commission”).

3 (b) DUTIES OF COMMISSION.—

4 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission shall—

5 (A) ascertain, evaluate, and report upon 6 the facts and circumstances relating to elec-7 tronic surveillance activities conducted without 8 a warrant between September 11, 2001 and 9 January 17, 2007;

10 (B) evaluate the lawfulness of such activi-11 ties;

12 (C) examine all programs and activities re-13 lating to intelligence collection inside the United 14 States or regarding United States persons that 15 were in effect or operation on September 11, 16 2001, and all such programs and activities un-17 dertaken since that date, including the legal 18 framework or justification for those activities;
19 and

20 (D) report to the President and Congress
21 the findings and conclusions of the Commission
22 and any recommendations the Commission con-
23 siders appropriate.

24 (2) PROTECTION OF NATIONAL SECURITY.—

25 The Commission shall carry out the duties of the 1 Commission under this section in a manner con-

2 sistent with the need to protect national security.

3 (c) COMPOSITION OF COMMISSION.—

4 (1) MEMBERS.—The Commission shall be com-5 posed of 9 members, of whom—

6 (A) 5 members shall be appointed jointly 7 by the majority leader of the Senate and the 8 Speaker of the House of Representatives; and 9 (B) 4 members shall be appointed jointly 10 by the minority leader of the Senate and the 11 minority leader of the House of Representa-

12 tives.

13 (2) QUALIFICATIONS.—It is the sense of Con-
14 gress that individuals appointed to the Commission
15 should be prominent United States citizens with sig-
16 nificant depth of experience in national security, 17 Constitutional law, and civil liberties.

18 (3) CHAIR; VICE CHAIR.—

19 (A) CHAIR.—The Chair of the Commission
20 shall be jointly appointed by the majority leader 21 of the Senate and the Speaker of the House of 22 Representatives from among the members ap-
23 pointed under paragraph (1)(A).

24 (B) VICE CHAIR.—The Vice Chair of the 25 Commission shall be jointly appointed by the

1 minority leader of the Senate and the minority
2 leader of the House of Representatives from 3 among the members appointed under paragraph
4 (1)(B).

5 (4) DEADLINE FOR APPOINTMENT.—All mem-
6 bers of the Commission shall be appointed not later 7 than 90 days after the date of the enactment of this 8 Act.

9 (5) INITIAL MEETING.—The Commission shall 10 hold its first meeting and begin operations not later 11 than 45 days after the date on which a majority of 12 its members have been appointed.

13 (6) SUBSEQUENT MEETINGS.—After its initial 14 meeting, the Commission shall meet upon the call of 15 the Chair.

16 (7) QUORUM.—A majority of the members of 17 the Commission shall constitute a quorum, but a 18 lesser number may hold hearings.

19 (8) VACANCIES.—Any vacancy in the Commis-20 sion shall not affect its powers and shall be filled in 21 the same manner in which the original appointment 22 was made.

23 (d) POWERS OF COMMISSION.—

24 (1) HEARINGS AND EVIDENCE.—The Commis-
25 sion or, on the authority of the Chair, any sub-

1 committee or member thereof may, for the purpose 2 of carrying out this section, hold such hearings and 3 sit and act at such times and places, take such testi-4 mony, receive such evidence, and administer such 5 oaths as the Commission, such designated sub-6 committee, or designated member may determine ad-7 visable.

8 (2) SUBPOENAS.—

9 (A) ISSUANCE.—

10 (i) IN GENERAL.—The Commission
11 may issue subpoenas requiring the attend-12 ance and testimony of witnesses and the 13 production of any evidence relating to any 14 matter that the Commission is empowered 15 to investigate under this section. The at-16 tendance of witnesses and the production
17 of evidence may be required from any place
18 within the United States at any designated 19 place of hearing within the United States.

20 (ii) SIGNATURE.—Subpoenas issued 21 under this paragraph may be issued under 22 the signature of the Chair of the Commis-
23 sion, the chair of any subcommittee cre-24 ated by a majority of the Commission, or 25 any member designated by a majority of

1 the Commission and may be served by any 2 person designated by such Chair, sub-
3 committee chair, or member.

4 (B) ENFORCEMENT.—

5 (i) IN GENERAL.—If a person refuses
6 to obey a subpoena issued under subpara-
7 graph (A), the Commission may apply to a
8 United States district court for an order 9 requiring that person to appear before the 10 Commission to give testimony, produce evi-
11 dence, or both, relating to the matter
12 under investigation. The application may 13 be made within the judicial district where 14 the hearing is conducted or where that per-15 son is found, resides, or transacts business.
16 Any failure to obey the order of the court 17 may be punished by the court as civil con-18 tempt.

19 (ii) JURISDICTION.—In the case of 20 contumacy or failure to obey a subpoena 21 issued under subparagraph (A), the United 22 States district court for the judicial district 23 in which the subpoenaed person resides, is 24 served, or may be found, or where the sub-25 poena is returnable, may issue an order re-

1           quiring such person to appear at any des-2           ignated place to testify or to produce docu-3           mentary or other evidence. Any failure to 4           obey the order of the court may be pun-5           ished by the court as a contempt of that 6           court.

7                   (iii) ADDITIONAL ENFORCEMENT.—In 8           the case of the failure of a witness to com-9           ply with any subpoena or to testify when 10          summoned under authority of this para-
11          graph, the Commission, by majority vote, 12          may certify a statement of fact attesting to 13          such failure to the appropriate United 14          States attorney, who shall bring the matter 15          before the grand jury for its action, under 16          the same statutory authority and proce-17          dures as if the United States attorney had 18          received a certification under sections 102 19          through 104 of the Revised Statutes of the 20          United States (2 U.S.C. 192 through 194).

21               (3) CONTRACTING.—The Commission may, to 22          such extent and in such amounts as are provided in 23          appropriations Acts, enter into contracts to enable 24          the Commission to discharge its duties under this 25          section.

1 (4) INFORMATION FROM FEDERAL AGENCIES.—

2 (A) IN GENERAL.—The Commission is au-
3 thorized to secure directly from any executive 4 department, bureau, agency, board, commission, 5 office, independent establishment, or instrumen-
6 tality of the Government documents, informa-7 tion, suggestions, estimates, and statistics for 8 the purposes of this section. Each department, 9 bureau, agency, board, commission, office, inde-10 pendent establishment, or instrumentality shall 11 furnish such documents, information, sugges-12 tions, estimates, and statistics directly to the 13 Commission upon request made by the Chair, 14 the chair of any subcommittee created by a ma-
15 jority of the Commission, or any member des-16 ignated by a majority of the Commission.

17 (B) RECEIPT, HANDLING, STORAGE, AND 18 DISSEMINATION.—Information shall only be re-19 ceived, handled, stored, and disseminated by 20 members of the Commission and its staff in a 21 manner consistent with all applicable statutes, 22 regulations, and Executive orders.

23 (5) ASSISTANCE FROM FEDERAL AGENCIES.—

24 (A) GENERAL SERVICES ADMINISTRA-
25 TION.—The Administrator of General Services

1 shall provide to the Commission on a reimburs-2 able basis administrative support and other
3 services for the performance of the Commis-
4 sion's functions.

5 (B) OTHER DEPARTMENTS AND AGEN-
6 CIES.—In addition to the assistance prescribed
7 in subparagraph (A), departments and agencies
8 of the United States may provide to the Com-9 mission such services, funds, facilities, staff, 10 and other support services as they may deter-11 mine advisable and as may be authorized by 12 law.

13 (6) GIFTS.—The Commission may accept, use, 14 and dispose of gifts or donations of services or prop-15 erty.

16 (7) POSTAL SERVICES.—The Commission may 17 use the United States mails in the same manner and 18 under the same conditions as departments and agen-
19 cies of the United States.

20 (e) STAFF OF COMMISSION.—

22 (A) APPOINTMENT AND COMPENSATION.—
23 The Chair, in consultation with Vice Chair and 24 in accordance with rules agreed upon by the 25 Commission, may appoint and fix the com-

1           pensation of an executive director and such 2           other personnel as may be necessary to enable 3           the Commission to carry out its functions, with-4           out regard to the provisions of title 5, United 5           States Code, governing appointments in the 6           competitive service, and without regard to the 7           provisions of chapter 51 and subchapter III of 8           chapter 53 of such title relating to classification
9           and General Schedule pay rates, except that no
10          rate of pay fixed under this paragraph may ex-11          ceed the equivalent of that payable for a posi-12          tion at level V of the Executive Schedule under 13          section 5316 of title 5, United States Code.

14           (B) PERSONNEL AS FEDERAL EMPLOY-
15          EES.—

16           (i) IN GENERAL.—The executive di-
17          rector and any personnel of the Commis-
18          sion who are employees shall be employees 19          under section 2105 of title 5, United 20          States Code, for purposes of chapters 63, 21          81, 83, 84, 85, 87, 89, 89A, 89B, and 90 22          of that title.

23           (ii) MEMBERS OF COMMISSION.—
24          Clause (i) shall not be construed to apply
25          to members of the Commission.

1           (2) DETAILEES.—A Federal Government em-
2     ployee may be detailed to the Commission without 3     reimbursement from the Commission, and such 4     detailee shall retain the rights, status, and privileges
5     of his or her regular employment without interrup-
6     tion.

7           (3) CONSULTANT SERVICES.—The Commission 8     is authorized to procure the services of experts and 9     consultants in accordance with section 3109 of title 10    5, United States Code, at rates not to exceed the 11    daily rate paid a person occupying a position at level 12    IV of the Executive Schedule under section 5315 of 13    title 5, United States Code.

14    (f) SECURITY CLEARANCES FOR COMMISSION MEM-
15    BERS AND STAFF.—

16           (1) EXPEDITIOUS PROVISION OF CLEAR-
17    ANCES.—The appropriate Federal agencies or de-18    partments shall cooperate with the Commission in 19    expeditiously providing to the Commission members
20    and staff appropriate security clearances to the ex-21    tent possible pursuant to existing procedures and re-22    quirements, except that no person shall be provided 23    with access to classified information under this sec-24    tion without the appropriate security clearances.

1           (2) ACCESS TO CLASSIFIED INFORMATION.—All
2 members of the Commission and commission staff, 3 as authorized by the Chair or the designee of the 4 Chair, who have obtained appropriate security clear-5 ances, shall have access to classified information re-6 lated to the surveillance activities within the scope of 7 the examination of the Commission and any other 8 related classified information that the members of 9 the Commission determine relevant to carrying out 10 the duties of the Commission under this section.

11           (3) FACILITIES AND RESOURCES.—The Direc-
12 tor of National Intelligence shall provide the Com-13 mission with appropriate space and technical facili-
14 ties approved by the Commission.

15           (g) COMPENSATION AND TRAVEL EXPENSES.—

16           (1) COMPENSATION.—Each member of the 17 Commission may be compensated at a rate not to 18 exceed the daily equivalent of the annual rate of 19 basic pay in effect for a position at level IV of the 20 Executive Schedule under section 5315 of title 5, 21 United States Code, for each day during which that 22 member is engaged in the actual performance of the 23 duties of the Commission.

24           (2) TRAVEL EXPENSES.—While away from 25 their homes or regular places of business in the per-

1 formance of services for the Commission, members
2 of the Commission shall be allowed travel expenses, 3 including per diem in lieu of subsistence, in the 4 same manner as persons employed intermittently in 5 the Government service are allowed expenses under 6 section 5703(b) of title 5, United States Code.

7 (h) NONAPPLICABILITY OF FEDERAL ADVISORY 8 COMMITTEE ACT.—

9 (1) IN GENERAL.—The Federal Advisory Com-10 mittee Act (5 U.S.C. App.) shall not apply to the 11 Commission.

12 (2) PUBLIC MEETINGS.—The Commission shall 13 hold public hearings and meetings to the extent ap-14 propriate.

15 (3) PUBLIC HEARINGS.—Any public hearings of 16 the Commission shall be conducted in a manner con-17 sistent with the protection of information provided 18 to or developed for or by the Commission as re-
19 quired by any applicable statute, regulation, or Ex-20 ecutive order.

21 (i) REPORTS AND RECOMMENDATIONS OF COMMIS-
22 SION.—

23 (1) INTERIM REPORTS.—The Commission may 24 submit to the President and Congress interim re-25 ports containing such findings, conclusions, and rec-

1       ommendations for corrective measures as have been 2       agreed to by a majority of Commission members.

3           (2) FINAL REPORT.—Not later than one year
4       after the date of its first meeting, the Commission, 5       in consultation with appropriate representatives of 6       the intelligence community, shall submit to the 7       President and Congress a final report containing 8       such information, analysis, findings, conclusions, and 9       recommendations as have been agreed to by a major-10      ity of Commission members.

11          (3) FORM.—The reports submitted under para-
12      graphs (1) and (2) shall be submitted in unclassified 13      form, but may include a classified annex.

14          (4) RECOMMENDATIONS FOR DECLASSIFICA-
15      TION.—The Commission may make recommenda-16      tions to the appropriate department or agency of the 17      Federal Government regarding the declassification of 18      documents or portions of documents.

19      (j) TERMINATION.—

20          (1) IN GENERAL.—The Commission, and all the 21      authorities of this section, shall terminate 60 days
22      after the date on which the final report is submitted 23      under subsection (i)(2).

24          (2) ADMINISTRATIVE ACTIVITIES BEFORE TER-
25      MINATION.—The Commission may use the 60-day

1 period referred to in paragraph (1) for the purpose
2 of concluding its activities, including providing testi-
3 mony to committees of Congress concerning its re-4 port and disseminating the final report.

5 (k) DEFINITIONS.—In this section:

6 (1) INTELLIGENCE COMMUNITY.—The term
7 “intelligence community” has the meaning given the 8 term in section 3(4) of the National Security Act of 9 1947 (50 U.S.C. 401a(4)).

10 (2) UNITED STATES PERSON.—The term
11 “United States person” has the meaning given the 12 term in section 101(i) of the Foreign Intelligence 13 Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801(i)).

14 (l) FUNDING.—

15 (1) IN GENERAL.—There are authorized to be 16 appropriated such sums as may be necessary to 17 carry out the activities of the Commission under this 18 section.

19 (2) DURATION OF AVAILABILITY.—Amounts
20 made available to the Commission under paragraph 21 (1) shall remain available until the termination of 22 the Commission.

1     TITLE IV—OTHER PROVISIONS

2     SEC. 401. SEVERABILITY.

3         If any provision of this Act, any amendment made 4 by this Act, or the application thereof to any person or 5 circumstances is held invalid, the validity of the remainder 6 of the Act, any such amendments, and of the application 7 of such provisions to other persons and circumstances 8 shall not be affected thereby.

9     SEC. 402. EFFECTIVE DATE.

21 (a) TRANSITION PROCEDURES FOR PROTECT AMER-22 ICA ACT OF 2007 PROVISIONS.—

23 (1) CONTINUED EFFECT OF ORDERS, AUTHOR-
24 IZATIONS, DIRECTIVES.—Notwithstanding any other 25 provision of law, any order, authorization, or direc-

1       tive issued or made pursuant to section 105B of the 2       Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as
3       added by section 2 of the Protect America Act of 4       2007 (Public Law 110-55; 121 Stat. 552), shall con-
5       tinue in effect until the expiration of such order, au-6       thorization, or directive.

7               (2) APPLICABILITY OF PROTECT AMERICA ACT
8       OF 2007 TO CONTINUED ORDERS, AUTHORIZATIONS,
9       DIRECTIVES.—Notwithstanding any other provision
10       of this Act or of the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-
11       lance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.)—

12               (A) subject to paragraph (3), section 105A
13       of such Act, as added by section 2 of the Pro-
14       tect America Act of 2007 (Public Law 110-55; 15       121 Stat. 552), shall continue to apply to any 16       acquisition conducted pursuant to an order, au-17       thorization, or directive referred to in para-18       graph (1); and

19               (B) sections 105B and 105C of such Act
20       (as so added) shall continue to apply with re-
21       spect to an order, authorization, or directive re-22       ferred to in paragraph (1) until the expiration 23       of such order, authorization, or directive.

24               (3) USE OF INFORMATION.—Information ac-25       quired from an acquisition conducted pursuant to an

1 order, authorization, or directive referred to in para-
2 graph (1) shall be deemed to be information ac-3 quired from an electronic surveillance pursuant to 4 title I of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 5 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.) for purposes of sec-6 tion 106 of such Act (50 U.S.C. 1806).

7 (4) PROTECTION FROM LIABILITY.—Subsection
8 (1) of section 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Sur-9 veillance Act of 1978, as added by section 2 of the 10 Protect America Act of 2007, shall continue to apply 11 with respect to any directives issued pursuant to 12 such section 105B.

13 (5) JURISDICTION OF FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE
14 SURVEILLANCE COURT.—Notwithstanding any other 15 provision of this Act or of the Foreign Intelligence 16 Surveillance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.), 17 section 103(e), as amended by section 5(a) of the 18 Protect America Act of 2007 (Public Law 110-55; 19 121 Stat. 556), shall continue to apply with respect 20 to a directive issued pursuant to section 105B of the 21 Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act of 1978, as
22 added by section 2 of the Protect America Act of 23 2007, until the expiration of all orders, authoriza-24 tions, and directives issued or made pursuant to 25 such section.

1 (6) REPORTING REQUIREMENTS.—

2 (A) CONTINUED APPLICABILITY.—Not-
3 withstanding any other provision of this Act, 4 the Protect America Act of 2007 (Public Law
5 110-55), or the Foreign Intelligence Surveil-
6 lance Act of 1978 (50 U.S.C. 1801 et seq.),
7 section 4 of the Protect America Act of 2007 8 shall continue to apply until the date that the 9 certification described in subparagraph (B) is 10 submitted.

11 (B) CERTIFICATION.—The certification de-
12 scribed in this subparagraph is a certification—

13 (i) made by the Attorney General;

14 (ii) submitted as part of a semi-an-15 nual report required by section 4 of the 16 Protect America Act of 2007;

17 (iii) that states that there will be no
18 further acquisitions carried out under sec-
19 tion 105B of the Foreign Intelligence Sur-

8 required to be included in a review, assess-9 ment, or report under section 601 of such 10 Act, as amended by section 101(c), or sec-
11 tion 702(l) or 707 of such Act, as added
12 by section 101(a), relating to any acquisi-
13 tion conducted under title VII of such Act, 14 as amended by section 101(a), has been in-15 cluded in a review, assessment, or report
16 under such section 601, 702(l), or 707.

17 (5) TRANSITION PROCEDURES CONCERNING
18 THE TARGETING OF UNITED STATES PERSONS OVER-19 SEAS.—Any authorization in effect on the date of 20 enactment of this Act under section 2.5 of Executive 21 Order 12333 to intentionally target a United States 22 person reasonably believed to be located outside the 23 United States shall continue in effect, and shall con-
24 stitute a sufficient basis for conducting such an ac-

1       quisition targeting a United States person located 2       outside the United States until the earlier of—

3               (A) the date that such authorization ex-4       pires; or

5               (B) the date that is 90 days after the date
6       of the enactment of this Act.

7       SEC. 405. NO RIGHTS UNDER THE FISA AMENDMENTS ACT
8               OF 2008 FOR UNDOCUMENTED ALIENS.

9       This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall 10      not be construed to prohibit surveillance of, or grant any 11      rights to, an alien not permitted to be in or remain in 12      the United States.

13      SEC. 406. SURVEILLANCE TO PROTECT THE UNITED
14              STATES.

15      This Act and the amendments made by this Act shall 16      not be construed to prohibit the intelligence community 17      (as defined in section 3(4) of the National Security Act 18      of 1947 (50 U.S.C. 401a(4))) from conducting lawful sur-19      veillance that is necessary to—

20              (1) prevent Osama Bin Laden, al Qaeda, or any 21      other terrorist or terrorist organization from attack-22      ing the United States, any United States person, or 23      any ally of the United States;

24              (2) ensure the safety and security of members 25      of the United States Armed Forces or any other of-

1        ficer or employee of the Federal Government in-2        volved in protecting the national security of the 3        United States; or

4            (3) protect the United States, any United 5        States person, or any ally of the United States from 6        threats posed by weapons of mass destruction or 7        other threats to national security.
