(and amend the table of contents accordingly):

1           TITLE VIII—WIND ENERGY

2   SEC. 801. SENSE OF CONGRESS RELATING TO WIND EN-
3                   ERGY.

4           (a) FINDINGS.—The Congress finds that—

5                   (1) there are 75,000 jobs supported by the wind
6           industry across all 50 States, including manufac-
7           turing jobs at over 470 facilities, and

8                   (2) since the adoption of the Federal renewable 9           energy production tax credit in 1992, wind energy
10          production capacity has been able to grow by an av-
11          erage of 35 percent a year as this financial incentive
12          has provided stability in the energy market.

13          (b) SENSE OF CONGRESS.—It is the sense of Con-
14          gress that—

15                   (1) wind energy is of the utmost importance to 16          the development of energy resources in the United 17          States, and

1           (2) to ensure the long-term viability of this im-
2           portant renewable resource and to provide certainty
3           for job creators in the industry, the Federal renew-
4           able energy production tax credit must be extended.
